PETER ANGELOS

MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 17-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series twice, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a Major League Baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2131st consecutive game. In a testament to the enduring popularity of the team, in 2008 the Orioles welcomed their 100 millionth fan in franchise history and Oriole Park at Camden Yards welcomed its 50 millionth fan in just 17 seasons. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball.

The Orioles' ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. Under Mr. Angelos, the Orioles have dramatically increased their stake in scouting and player development, both in the United States and internationally. Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations Dan Duquette and his staff are paving the way to a new era of Orioles baseball designed to further fortify the player development and scouting areas while building on the talent already at the major league level.

In addition, Mr. Angelos' vision in creating the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network not only maintained the integrity of the Orioles television territory, but it created a valuable asset for the Orioles franchise, which is a part-owner of the regional sports network. The success of the network over the long term will provide the territorial and financial stability necessary to secure the future of the Orioles franchise in Baltimore for generations to come.

In conjunction with Major League Baseball's relocation of the Nationals in Washington, D.C., Mr. Angelos, refusing to allow the division or diminution of the Orioles' exclusive television territory, offered instead to share the Orioles' exclusive television territory with the Nationals and to form a jointly owned regional sports network that would professionally produce and present the games, shows, and programming of both teams throughout the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan area and the seven-state region served by MASN.

Orioles games are now distributed to a larger audience than ever, as the network is available to more than 6 million households from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network introduced pregame and postgame shows for every game and recruited Emmy award-winning, network-caliber broadcast teams, which include Hall of Famers and World Series MVPs. While the Orioles maintain a majority ownership interest in the network, MASN treats both teams equally in all matters. In 2012, the network began its eighth year televising Washington Nationals games and its sixth season as the Orioles' television outlet as part of its 24-hour programming schedule.

In addition to televising every available Nationals and Orioles game, Mr. Angelos wanted the network to highlight local collegiate programs whose games had not previously been televised. Many local Maryland schools are among the 300 NCAA football, basketball, and lacrosse games televised by MASN every year.

Mr. Angelos has been an industry leader in professional baseball and has helped strengthen the national pastime. He was the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups. His involvement in those labor negotiations was hailed by both sides. Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969, setting the stage for a second such agreement in the fall of 2006.

The Orioles owner also has taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic 2-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort is being done in compliance with Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has taken constructive steps off the field to enhance the fan experience. In order to keep baseball games an affordable family experience, Angelos has insisted the club offer a range of ticket pricing. Furthermore, at his direction, Camden Yards maintains one of the most liberal food policies in all of professional sports, allowing outside food and beverages to be brought into the stadium. Despite an industry-wide trend towards selling stadium naming rights, Angelos has been steadfast in maintaining the integrity of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The fan experience has been further enhanced by a complete upgrade of the ballpark's sound system and a conversion of the in-park video boards to a high definition (HD) signal.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. Under Mr. Angelos' direction, the club launched OriolesREACH in 2007 to centralize its community relations initiatives in an effort to better reach those who needed the most assistance. Over 12,000 children experience a game for free at Oriole Park each season thanks to the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program, which provides complimentary tickets, transportation, concessions and souvenirs to those who might otherwise not be able to attend a game. Other annual OriolesREACH initiatives include a Food Drive, Blood Drive, Equipment Drive and Kids Holiday Party, among other diverse and meaningful programs.

Through cash contributions, ticket and memorabilia donations, club resources and promotion, over 800 non-profit groups are aided by the Orioles each year. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including for the 15th straight year being sponsors of the Baltimore Symphony Gala.

On a personal level, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, became the first ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution. Mr. Angelos is also an active supporter of the Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) Association.

The son of Greek immigrants, Mr. Angelos was born July 4, 1929 in Pittsburgh, PA. The family moved to Baltimore when he was an infant, and he was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products. Throughout his legal career, Angelos has been a champion for ordinary citizens and has taken on some of the most powerful corporations in the country, including asbestos manufacturers, the tobacco companies and the pharmaceutical industry.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to and served on the Baltimore City Council from 1959 to 1963, has long been active in civic and community endeavors. He currently is Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders that is spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's west side.

He also is a board member and major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corp., which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain its presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Mr. Angelos is also a strong supporter of the Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History and Culture. He serves on the Baltimore museum's Board of Directors and, in addition to lending personal financial support, was instrumental in helping the museum secure funding from the state of Maryland.

In 2008, he made a $5 million, dollar-for-dollar matching pledge to support the construction of a new 190,000 square foot law school building, to open in 2013, as part of the John and Frances Angelos Law Center at the University of Baltimore Law School. In 2010, Mr. Angelos donated another $5 million to his alma mater, bringing his total contribution to $10 million.

Peter Angelos also serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center- National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is also a member of The Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Mr. Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis. John is an Executive Vice President with the Orioles and MASN, while Louis is an attorney with the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: Former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keely, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

TOM CLANCY

VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October—the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States—sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as an undisputed master at blending exceptional realism with authenticity, intricate plotting, and razor-sharp suspense. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon, Red Rabbit and Teeth of the Tiger.

Clancy is extremely well-known for his deep admiration and respect for our men and women in uniform, whom he holds in the highest esteem. On November 8, 2010, he announced the "Send a Message to an American Hero" program, to encourage the American public to show their support by sending messages of gratitude to veterans and active duty soldiers who are recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, the nation's largest military medical facility, and clinical center of gravity of American military medicine.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.), and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine and Airborne. He has also written four books in an extraordinary nonfiction series that looks deep into the art of war through the eyes of America's outstanding military commanders.

JOHN P. ANGELOS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 19th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the general business operations of the club. In addition, Angelos has been involved since 2001 in the planning, development, and launch of the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), the regional sports and entertainment television network owned in partnership with the Washington Nationals, and he has been responsible since 2005 for the full-time launch and now oversight of the twenty-four hour, year-round television network.

During the past decade, Angelos has worked to enhance every facet of the club's business operations. In addition to overseeing general operations, ranging from sales and marketing to venue operations to broadcasting, Angelos has in particular focused upon expanding the reach, activation, and revenue potential of the Orioles' various television, radio, mobile and internet multimedia platforms. In 2010, Angelos was recognized by Sports Business Journal as one of ten top "decision-makers" in the United States with regard to the growth of online streaming of sports content for his vision and understanding of the economics of sports marketing and content distribution.

Angelos expanded the Orioles radio platform in 2006 by launching the Orioles Radio Network, the franchise's in-house radio arm, to bring the club comprehensive control of all aspects of its network affiliate distribution, programming development, sales and sponsorship revenues, and marketing and development of the Orioles brand on the radio platform. The move brought dramatic new pre-game and post-game shows, enhanced in-game features and interview content to listeners and fans, an enhanced talent team focused upon former Orioles players, incremental access to Orioles games on radio for millions of new fans, and enhanced new sponsorship sales and co-marketing opportunities for Orioles partners. In the Baltimore market, the ground breaking radio rightsholder partnership resulted in the expansion of the Orioles radio presence from that of a single broadcast station to a strategic partnership featuring a co-marketing and promotional reach across the region. Due to the launch, the club was able to triple the distribution of the Orioles Radio Network, which is now broadcast on over 40 affiliated stations reaching millions of listeners in seven Mid-Atlantic States.

Angelos played a pivotal role in contributing to planning, launching, expanding, and overseeing the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network from the earliest development stages through realization. From 2002, by virtue of his oversight of the Orioles in-house television operations up to and through the planning stages for the club's future regional sports network, Angelos focused upon enhancing the club's outreach to fans and sponsors along its television platform through development of programming and content, distribution, and sales opportunities. In 2005 and 2006, Angelos was instrumental in executing the launch of MASN first as a games-only network and soon thereafter as a twenty-four hour per day, year-round television network that was to soon lead the regional sports television industry on numerous fronts, including in the fields of game production, live programming, technology, marketing, and affiliate distribution. By 2006, as COO of MASN, and as MASN established significantly expanded carriage throughout its designated seven-state territory, he spearheaded efforts to, for the very first time in the Mid-Atlantic region, carry one-hundred percent of the game schedule of both baseball clubs to sports viewers and later lead the charge to make every game carried on the network available in the high-definition (HD) television format. As a result, MASN became the leading regional sports network in the country in telecasting over 300 live MLB games in the state of the art HD format. Under Angelos' watch, the network created originally produced, high quality pre-game shows, post-game shows, magazine format shows, and a variety of live and pre-packaged special programming and brought this programming for the very first time to the region's sports viewers.

Angelos recruited a high-profile, nationally recognized executive team and on-air talent team for all MASN game and show telecasts and oversaw the implementation by MASN's expert production team of important and unprecedented live television production enhancements at the regional sports network level that had typically been only experienced by viewers of national sports networks. In addition to telecasting all games in HD, these enhancements included the incorporation of "super-slo" motion cameras, remote field cameras, in-game player and manager interviews, live in-ballpark studio and off-site studio updates, and the integration of MASN's "Live-360 Degree" use of talent and content interchangeably across MASN's multiple television, internet, and mobile platforms as well as across the clubs' various radio, internet, and in-venue platforms.

Each of these enhancements was introduced to the region's MLB and sports fans on a regional sports network for the very first time by MASN. Angelos oversaw the creation and content development of the masnsports.com website, the creation of numerous strategic multimedia content sharing and co-marketing partnerships with several dominant television and radio stations and media entities in the Baltimore, Washington, D.C., and other regional markets, and the development of the launch marketing, on-air look and feel, and MASN's marketing and creative departments have consistently produced a compendium of award-winning on-air and off-air creative advertising and media marketing campaigns designed to launch the network, drive tune-in audience, and establish brand value and fan affinity for MASN. Under Angelos' direction, MASN's executive team of production and marketing experts were recognized on behalf of the network with 31 awards for creative and promotional excellence, including 24 Addy Awards, 6 Emmys, and the American Marketing Association's prestigious Award of Excellence.

Today, after rapid expansion over the past several years, MASN is one of the leading regional sports networks in the United States, and the network is carried through television affiliate agreements on 25 cable, satellite, and telecom providers distributing MASN throughout a region that is the fourth largest combined media market in the country and that covers Maryland, Washington, D.C., Virginia, Delaware, West Virginia, and North Carolina. MASN's annual advertising sales revenue has quadrupled since the network launched in 2006, and audience levels have consistently grown year over year. MASN currently televises more live professional and college content than perhaps any regional television sports network with over 300 live MLB games, 500 live professional and college games combined, and over 700 live shows covering the MLB, NFL, and NCAA among other properties appearing on MASN.

In 2011, Angelos worked to successfully conclude an eight-year project that he personally lead on behalf of the team to bring the Orioles and its fans a permanent Spring Training home in a modern, state of the art training facility in Sarasota, Florida. Angelos represented the club in numerous jurisdictions before both House of Representative and Senate legislative bodies in the State of Florida as well as before various County and City Commissions and other local bodies throughout the state while leading the club in first conceptual discussions and later negotiations with elected representatives and public officials, business leaders, Chambers of Commerce, State and County tourism representatives and hotel associations, and civic, charitable, and non-profit groups. Angelos negotiated directly with State, County, and local officials in executing and concluding the successful effort that authored a unique multi-dimensional public-private partnership proposal that called upon the State of Florida, Sarasota County, and the Orioles to create a partnership in Orioles Spring Training that would provide a state of the art scouting and player development facility for the team, economic activity and corporate citizenry and other benefits for the local community, and hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact through spring tourism incubation for the Sarasota community and for the State of Florida.

Angelos' unique proposal, which included an industry-first multimedia marketing, promotion, and business-to-business incubation program hailed by local tourism, civic, and political officials for its activation of a sister-city relationship and as a driver of economic development and goodwill on behalf of the Orioles and MLB, and his stewardship of the project culminated in a comprehensive partnership agreement between the State of Florida, Sarasota County, the City of Sarasota, and the Orioles that both secured the team's place in Florida for many decades to come for the benefit of local residents and secured $31.2 million in public funding and a new athletic development facility for the benefit of the team and its many fans.

Angelos joined the Orioles organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman and oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations, and Customer Service departments of the franchise to provide more personal service to fans. In the role of Executive Vice President of the club since 1999, Angelos' responsibilities expanded in that role to include all Marketing and Promotion, Sales, Broadcasting, Operations, and General and Administrative areas, and all Business Operations of the franchise. In 2001, as part of his broadcasting development role, Angelos participated in instituting and further developing Orioles Television, the in-house television production, sales, and distribution arm of the Orioles franchise that would later evolve into the full time regional sports television network MASN in 2005.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, Angelos received a B.A. in Political Science from Duke University and then earned a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore School of Law.

DOUG DUENNES

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

A longtime employee of the Cincinnati Reds, San Diego Padres and Los Angeles Dodgers, Doug Duennes joined the Orioles as Executive Vice President of Business Operations in April 2011. He has over 30 years of experience in Major League Baseball and oversees all of the Orioles' day-to-day business operations.

Duennes most recently worked in MLB with the Los Angeles Dodgers, spending 10 seasons with the club from 1995-2005, including the last five as Vice President of Stadium Operations. Prior to joining the Dodgers, Duennes spent eight seasons with the San Diego Padres, six of those as Director of Stadium Operations and the final two as Vice President of Stadium Operations. He began his MLB career with the Cincinnati Reds, working for 12 years in their Stadium Operations department, including the last nine seasons as Director.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Duennes served as General Manager of Centerplate at the Baltimore Convention Center. He also spent nearly three years as Senior Vice President of Operations at the Pennsylvania Convention Center after leaving the Dodgers.

ROBERT AMES

VICE PRESIDENT ADMINISTRATION/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 18th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. Prior to that he worked for the U.S. Government in their Chemical Research and Development Center. He was promoted to Orioles Vice President in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Ames is responsible for administration, accounting, information systems, human resources, purchasing, retail sales, insurance and special projects. He serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable and credit and collections, as well as the treasury departments.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received a Bachelor of Science degree in Microbiology and an additional Bachelor of Science degree in Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Ames is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs, the American Institute of CPAs, and the Society for Human Resources Management.

Ames resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily (currently a registered nurse with the University of Maryland Hospital), Lyndsay, Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is a passionate gardener, and is also active in his church, Real Life Community Church, currently serving as a Trustee on the church board.

LOU KOUSOURIS

VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 19th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Kousouris has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Kousouris coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community. He sits on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command and has helped raise over $4 million annually for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fundraising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Kousouris was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Kousouris resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. They have two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who lives in Baltimore and works for a commercial real estate company; and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law who is the Director of Camp Puh'tok, a 501(c)(3) summer camp for children in northern Baltimore County.

JANET MARIE SMITH

VICE PRESIDENT, PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

Renowned urban planner Janet Marie Smith rejoined the Orioles as Vice President of Planning and Development in September 2009. In her current role, Smith oversees renovations at the Orioles' new spring training facility in Sarasota, Florida as well as upgrades and enhancements to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

Smith previously worked for the Orioles from 1989-94 as Vice President of Planning and Development during the design and construction of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opening in 1992, Camden Yards immediately became the standard-bearer for a new wave of traditional baseball parks that have been built in subsequent years. Smith played an instrumental role in the design of the ballpark, creating a state-of-the-art unique facility that blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking inspiration from baseball parks built in the early 20th century.

Prior to rejoining the Orioles, Smith served as Senior Vice President of Planning and Development for the Boston Red Sox from 2002 to 2009, overseeing the preservation of historic Fenway Park and leading the program that placed this significant ballpark on the National Historic Register. In 2012, the Boston Baseball Writers honored Smith with a Special Achievement Award for her work at Fenway Park. In 2011, she was named in the Inaugural Class of the Sports Business Journal "Game Changers: Women in Sports Business."

Janet Marie also worked as Senior Advisor of Planning and Design with Baltimore-based Struever Bros. Eccles & Rouse on many of their development and rehab projects from Nashville, Tennessee to Providence, Rhode Island, including concept planning for renovation plan for the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, CA. She was also part of the THINK team, one of the final two teams in the competition for the World Trade Center site in New York City in 2002. From 1994 to 2000, Smith held the position of President of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development, a division of Turner Broadcasting System, and was the Vice President of Planning and Development for the Atlanta Braves. Her work in Atlanta helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field, home of the Braves, and she also oversaw the development of the Philips Arena, home of the NBA Atlanta Hawks and NHL Atlanta Thrashers.

Before working in sports, Smith worked on urban development projects including Pershing Square in Los Angeles and Battery Park City in New York City, where she served as Coordinator of Architecture and Design.

Smith holds a Masters degree in Urban Planning from City College of New York and a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Mississippi State University. She is an associate member of the Urban Land Institute, American Institute of Architects, and the American Planning Association. She also serves on the Board of Directors for Berklee College of Music in Boston and the Advisory Board for the University of Michigan Sports Management Program.

A native of Jackson, Mississippi, Smith resides in Baltimore with her husband, Bart Harvey, and their three children.

DAN DUQUETTE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

On November 8, 2011, the Orioles named Dan Duquette as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations. A veteran of over two decades in baseball operations at the Major League level, including 10 of those seasons as General Manager with the Montreal Expos and Boston Red Sox, Duquette has a proven track record of utilizing strong scouting and player development to construct contending franchises.

Duquette's eight seasons as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Red Sox from 1994 through 2001 included three playoff teams (1995, 1998 and 1999), and his acquisitions helped lay the groundwork for the club's first World Series championship in 86 years in 2004. The club made the playoffs in back-to-back years in 1998 and 1999, the first time in 80 seasons the franchise had accomplished the feat. Seven key contributors (Pedro Martinez, Derek Lowe, Manny Ramirez, Jason Varitek, Trot Nixon, Tim Wakefield and Johnny Damon) on the 2004 team were acquired during Duquette's tenure. Under his leadership, Boston compiled a .544 winning percentage (695-582).

Duquette also showed a commitment to expanding Boston's reach in the international market, finishing the 2001 season with 12 of the players on the club's 40-man roster born outside the United States. At Boston's 2002 spring training camp, players from 10 different countries were represented.

The Red Sox minor league system was shaped into a feeder system for the major league club under Duquette's watch, with homegrown players including Nomar Garciaparra, Shea Hillenbrand, Casey Fossum and Trot Nixon making contributions to the team. Future major league players Kevin Youkilis, David Eckstein, Hanley Ramirez and Freddy Sanchez were also drafted or signed during Duquette's tenure. The talent in the Red Sox minor league system also enabled Duquette to trade for Pedro Martinez, and for Boston to later acquire Curt Schilling and Josh Beckett. Red Sox minor league affiliates finished with an overall record over .500 in five of Duquette's last six seasons with the organization.

Prior to joining the Red Sox, Duquette spent six seasons with the Montreal Expos, joining the club as Director of Player Development in October 1987 and being promoted to Assistant General Manager in 1990, followed by a two-year stint as Vice President and General Manager from 1992-1993. At the time of his promotion he was the youngest General Manager in the major leagues. During his six years with Montreal, Duquette was instrumental in assembling Expos teams that contended from 1992-94, acquiring players including Ken Hill, Mel Rojas, Larry Walker, John Wetteland, Marquis Grissom, Jeff Shaw and Pedro Martinez. He also signed stars Vladimir Guerrero, Jose Vidro and Javier Vazquez and named Felipe Alou the first manager from the Dominican Republic in major league history in 1992.

Despite one of the lowest payrolls in baseball, Montreal compiled a 255-183 record (.582 winning percentage) from 1992-94, the best record in baseball over the span. The Expos had baseball's best record in the strike-shortened 1994 season (74-40), a team Duquette constructed. In 1992 Duquette was named The Sporting News Major League Executive of the Year and the UPI National League Executive of the Year, and the Expos were honored as the Topps Major League Organization of the Year in 1993.

Duquette began his career in baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981, working in the scouting department under former Orioles general manager Harry Dalton. He spent a total of seven years in scouting and player development with the Brewers from 1981 through 1987, the last two as Scouting Coordinator.

In 2003, Duquette founded and built the Dan Duquette Sports Academy, a Massachusetts-based baseball, softball and soccer camp and tournament facility for youth. In 2004, he purchased the Pittsfield Dukes of the New England Collegiate Baseball League and in 2007 Duquette was a founding member and director of player development of the Israel Baseball League.

A native of Dalton, Massachusetts, Duquette, 53, earned a degree in English from Amherst College and played on the school's baseball and football teams. He has three children, daughter Denise and sons Daniel and Dana.

BRADY ANDERSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Orioles Hall of Famer Brady Anderson was named Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations in January. He assists Dan Duquette with player relations and player development and oversees conditioning throughout the organization.

A veteran of 15 major league seasons, 14 with Baltimore, Anderson holds the Orioles' all-time stolen bases record (307). He ranks among the top 10 in Orioles career batting leaders in 12 categories and also holds the club single-season records for total bases (369), home runs (50), extra-base hits (92), and hit by pitch (24). Anderson was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame in 2004.

Acquired by the Orioles during the 1988 season from Boston with Curt Schilling in exchange for Mike Boddicker, Anderson was named to the American League All-Star team three times, in 1992, 1996 and 1997, starting the last two seasons. He lives in Southern California.

LEE THOMAS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Lee Thomas joined the Orioles in December 2011. He brings over five decades of experience in professional baseball to his new role, highlighted by Executive of the Year honors in 1993 after leading the Philadelphia Phillies to the World Series as General Manager.

Thomas served as GM of the Phillies from June 1988 through December 1997 but spent the majority of his career with the St. Louis Cardinals. He worked for the Cardinals in several capacities over 18 years from 1970-1988, ending with eight years as Director of Player Development. Over that span the Cardinals went to the World Series three times, in 1982, 1985 and 1987.

Thomas played eight seasons of major league baseball from 1961-68 with the New York Yankees, California Angels, Boston Red Sox, Atlanta Braves, Chicago Cubs and Houston Astros. An outfielder and first baseman, Thomas was named to the American League All-Star team in 1962.

Most recently, Thomas worked as a pro scout for the Milwaukee Brewers from 2004-2006. Prior to that time he worked for six seasons as Special Assistant to the General Manager and Assistant General Manager for the Red Sox, working closely with Dan Duquette the majority of those years.

Lee and his wife Susan reside in Chesterfield, Missouri.

GARY RAJSICH

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Gary Rajsich is in his first season as Director of Scouting, having joined the Orioles in November 2011 from the Toronto Blue Jays, where he spent the past two seasons as the club's professional crosschecker.

Rajsich, 57, began his scouting career in 1990 with the Major League Scouting Bureau. He joined the Boston Red Sox in 1994, serving in both the amateur and professional departments through 2006. In his time with Boston, Rajsich drafted and signed pitcher Jon Lester and was instrumental in acquiring pitcher Derek Lowe and catcher Jason Varitek from the Seattle Mariners in exchange for pitcher Heathcliff Slocumb at the trade deadline in 1997. From Boston, Rajsich joined the Texas Rangers as a professional scout, where he served from 2006-2009 before being hired by the Blue Jays as professional crosschecker in the fall of 2009.

Selected and signed by the Houston Astros as an 11th round selection in the 1976 draft out of Arizona State University, Rajsich played four years in the major leagues (1982-85). The first baseman and right fielder made his Major League debut for the New York Mets in 1982. In his time in the Mets' minor league system, Rajsich played for the Norfolk Tides, now the Orioles' Triple-A affiliate. He is the Tides franchise leader in home runs (52) and ranks second in Norfolk history with a .548 slugging percentage.

Rajsich also played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1984) and San Francisco Giants (1985) and finished his playing career with the Chunichi Dragons in the Japan Central League (1986-88).

Rajsich and his wife, Linda, have been married for 35 years and have two sons, Lou, 28, and Lee, 27.

FRED FERREIRA

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL RECRUITING

Fred Ferreira joined the Orioles in December 2011 as Executive Director of International Recruiting. Known as "The Shark of the Caribbean", Ferreira has demonstrated a keen ability to find talent in Latin America. Entering the 2012 season, he has had 57 signees reach the Major Leagues, highlighted by stars Vladimir Guerrero, Bernie Williams, Orlando Cabrera, Jose Video, Roberto Kelly and Javier Vazquez.

Ferreira has over four decades of experience in professional baseball operations and worked as Vice President and Director of International Operations and Scouting for the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. He also served as Director of International Operations and Scouting for the Yankees and Cincinnati Reds and scouted for the Angels.

Ferreira also has managerial experience, spending two seasons (1986-87) as the manager of the Yankees' Gulf Coast League affiliate and managing in the Dominican Winter Leagues. He opened the Yankees' Dominican Academy, the first of its kind among major league organizations and worked for two World Series teams, the Cincinnati Reds (1979) and Florida Marlins (2003).

Ferreira and his wife, Faye, have three adult daughters – Darlene, Debra and Denise.

RAY POITEVINT

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL BASEBALL

Ray Poitevint joined the Orioles as Executive Director of International Baseball in January 2012. Now in his sixth decade working in baseball, Poitevint began his career as an Associate Scout with the Orioles in the early 1960s. He was promoted to Area Scout and then Supervisor over the course of his 12 years with the club, where he recommended and signed Hall of Famer Eddie Murray and Dennis Martinez, among others.

Poitevint was an original member of the "Dalton Gang" who worked with former Orioles GM Harry Dalton in Baltimore, California and Milwaukee. After a brief stint as Farm and Development Director with the Angels, he joined the Brewers in 1978, serving as Scouting and Farm Director and eventually Vice President of International Operations in 15 years with Milwaukee. BJ Surhoff, Ted Higuera and Juan Nieves were among his notable signings with the Brewers.

He spent over nine years with the Red Sox as the Executive Director of International Operations beginning in 1992, where he recommended and signed Hideo Nomo as a major league free agent and Tomo Ohka from Japan. He was also instrumental in acquiring Sun Woo Kim and Jin Ho Cho from Korea in his time working with Duquette in Boston.

Poitevint also spent two years the MLB Scouting Bureau in the mid-70s and has placed over 50 players from American baseball clubs on Japanese teams.

He and his wife, Takako (Lisa), have been married since 1957 and have two daughters, Lisa and Laura.

TRIPP NORTON

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

A member of the Orioles' baseball operations staff since 1998, Tripp Norton was named the club's Director of Baseball Administration in January. In his new role Norton will negotiate major league player contracts, be involved with salary arbitration and oversee budgeting for the entire baseball operation.

Norton was previously the club's Assistant Director of Player Development, a role he held since January 2000. He started with the Orioles in March 1998 as Player Development Administrator. Prior to joining the Orioles, Norton worked for the Detroit Tigers organization as their Assistant General Manager for Florida Operations from August 1994-March 1998 and worked as an Operations Assistant for the Florida Marlins the two years prior. Norton began his baseball career as an intern with the Lakeland Tigers in 1992.

A graduate of Florida Southern College and Hialeah-Miami Lakes High School, Norton was raised in Miami Lakes, Florida. He and his wife, Angel, reside in Baltimore with their son, Ty.

DAVID STOCKSTILL

DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

David Stockstill, a member of the Orioles' minor league staff for 17 years, is in his third season as the team's Director of International Operations. Stockstill had served as a roving hitting instructor, manager, field coordinator and hitting coordinator for the Orioles' minor league department since 1994 before being named Director of Minor League Operations in November 2004. His title was changed to Director of Player Development in 2008. In his final two years before being named to the top farm system post, Stockstill held the dual role as the organization's Minor League Field and Hitting Coordinator, overseeing on-field instruction throughout the Orioles' farm system.

Stockstill, 54, played professionally for 16 years after signing with the Chicago Cubs as a free agent in 1978. He played eight seasons between the Cubs, Rangers, Giants and Expos farm systems before moving to the Mexican League in 1986. He finished his career by playing eight seasons in Mexico, including the last 1 1/2 years as a player-manager for Union Laguna, and finished with a .342 career batting average, third on the Mexican League's all-time list.

In 1994, Stockstill joined the Orioles' organization as a roving hitting instructor, a position he held through 2001. The next year, he was named Minor League Field Coordinator before taking over as manager at AA Bowie for the second half of the 2002 season and leading the Baysox to a 26-26 record.

Stockstill was born and still resides in Hurley, MO. He was an all-state baseball and basketball player at Hurley HS and is a graduate of John Brown University in Arkansas, where he was a two-time NAIA All-American. At John Brown, he played for former major league outfielder and former O's minor league hitting coordinator Wally Moon.

JOHN STOCKSTILL

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

John Stockstill, in his seventh year with the Orioles, was named the club's Director of Player Personnel in January after serving as Director of Player Development the past two seasons. In his new role, Stockstill will oversee the day-to-day operation of the minor league system as well as help to procure talent for the organization at the Major League level.

Stockstill joined the Orioles in December 2005 to oversee the club's major league and professional scouting, but with the creation of the Orioles' academy in the Dominican Republic and a renewed emphasis on scouting outside the United States, he shifted his focus to the club's scouting in the Far East, Latin America and beyond as the team's Director of International Scouting.

Prior to joining the Orioles organization, Stockstill had spent his entire professional baseball career – as minor league player, scout and front office executive – with the Chicago Cubs. He had been Director of Scouting for the Cubs since September 1, 2000, after serving as Chicago's coordinator of scouting and national crosschecker since October 1998.

Stockstill was a 10th round pick in the 1978 draft and played four seasons in the Cubs' farm system. He returned to college and received his B.S. degree in communications at Drury University in Springfield, MO, and rejoined the Cubs as an associate scout in 1987. He became a part-time scout for the Cubs in 1989 before becoming a full-time area scout in 1989 and Midwest scouting supervisor four years later. He held that position for four years before being named scouting coordinator in 1998.

John and his wife, Ann, have one son, Jackson (10). They reside in White Hall, MD.

I N M E M O R I A M

MIKE FLANAGAN

1951 – 2011

Mike Flanagan spent nearly 30 years with the Orioles as a Hall of Fame player, coach, executive and MASN broadcaster. In 18 major league seasons with the Orioles and Toronto Blue Jays, "Flanny" compiled a 167-143 record and a 3.90 ERA, including a 141-116 mark over 15 seasons with the O's. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 1979, when he went 23-9 with a 3.08 ERA and 5 shutouts. He was a member of two American League championship teams with the Orioles, in 1979 and 1983, as well as their 1983 World Championship team.

Flanagan was drafted and signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe in 1973 and made his major league debut in 1975. In 1983, when the Orioles won the World Series Championship, he went 12-4 during the regular season despite missing nearly three months with ligament damage in his left knee. From 1977 through 1983 he made more starts (223) than any pitcher in the American League and was third in wins (109) over that time.

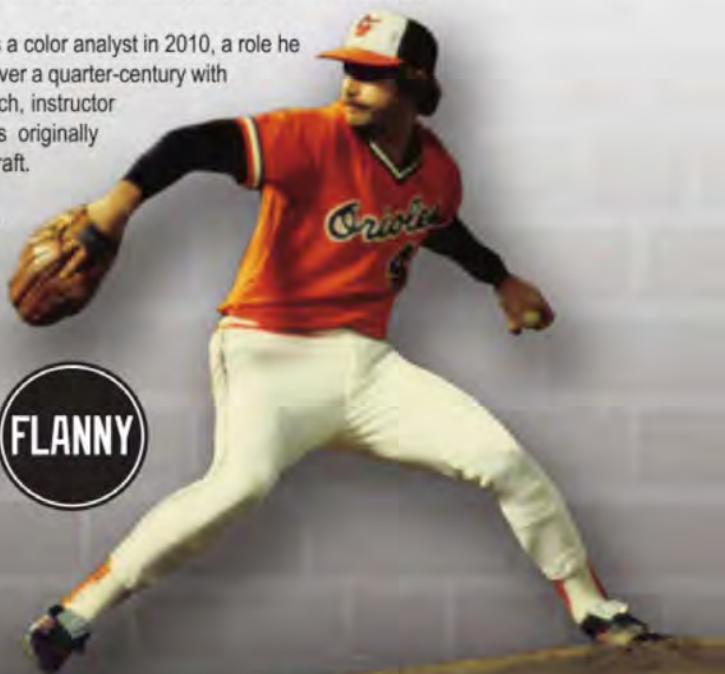

In 1987, he was traded to Toronto and pitched for the Blue Jays for 3 1/2 years, helping them win the American League East in 1989. A starter his entire career, he returned to the Orioles as a free agent in 1991, this time as a reliever, and made 63 appearances out of the bullpen. On October 6, 1991, in the last game played at Memorial Stadium, Flanny entered in relief with one out in the 9th inning and, to the overwhelming delight of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out Detroit's Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch at the 33rd Street ballpark. He finished his career in 1992, pitching for the Orioles in their first season at Camden Yards.

Flanagan was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility. He ranks 3rd in club history in games pitched (450), innings pitched (2317.2) and starts (328), 4th in strikeouts (1297) and complete games (98), 5th in victories (141) and 7th in shutouts (17).

Mike served as Orioles pitching coach in 1995, then spent two years as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He returned to the field in 1998 as pitching coach before heading back to the broadcast booth, where he remained for four seasons before being named Vice President for Baseball Operations prior to the 2003 season. In October 2005, Flanagan was named Executive Vice President for Baseball Operations, a role he held through the 2007 season. He was the first former Cy Young Award winner ever to assume a general manager-level position in baseball.

Flanagan returned to the MASN broadcast booth as a color analyst in 2010, a role he held until the time of his passing. In total, he spent over a quarter-century with the Baltimore Orioles organization as a player, coach, instructor and broadcaster, all but five years since he was originally selected by the team in the 7th round of the 1973 draft.

Mike is survived by his wife, Alex, and three daughters: Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall.

ORIOLES REACH

ORIOLES REACH IN THE COMMUNITY

For more than 50 years, the Baltimore Orioles have worked hard to give back to the local community, becoming involved in a variety of area programs and initiatives. Through OriolesREACH, the team seeks opportunities to reach out to our neighbors and help our fans improve their daily lives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles have also established a collection of initiatives under the current ownership group. Here is a brief summary of some of the efforts that have taken place during the past year both in the community and at Oriole Park.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated well over $10 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

AT THE BALLPARK

JACKIE ROBINSON DAY

In recognition of the 64th anniversary of Jackie Robinson becoming the first African-American player in Major League Baseball on April 15, all Orioles uniformed personnel wore #42, Robinson's number, for their game in Cleveland against the Indians, joining all other major league teams in honoring Robinson's historic achievement. Each player's authenticated, game-worn and autographed #42 jersey was then made available for auction on Orioles.com. The auction raised more than $14,000 to benefit the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Jackie Robinson Foundation. In a pre-game ceremony on April 18, the Orioles celebrated Jackie Robinson Day at Camden Yards by recognizing Jackie Robinson Foundation scholar Kapria Lee, a student at the University of Maryland and a Baltimore native. Lee was one of over 1,300 young men and women who were able to attend college thanks to the Jackie Robinson Foundation, Major League Baseball and the Orioles.

ORIOLES REACH GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

Each season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH invite more than 12,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region to experience the magic of Orioles Baseball as part of the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program. By partnering with various local non-profit and youth groups, OriolesREACH is able to provide children with free game tickets, concessions vouchers, Orioles t-shirts, caps and transportation to and from the game. In 2011, numerous Orioles players took part in the program, including Adam

Jones, Nick Markakis, J.J. Hardy, Brian Matusz, and Kevin Gregg. More than 70,000 children have participated since the program's inception.

ORIOLES MILITARY APPRECIATION PROGRAM

The Orioles are fortunate to be surrounded by dedicated military personnel throughout the region, and the organization is grateful for all of those who risk their lives each day for our country. In that spirit, the Orioles were proud to announce a new Military Appreciation Program in 2011. The program included a variety of exclusive ticket offers, catered suite donations every Sunday home game, welcome home scoreboard messages and special gameday activities. Suite donations were made possible in part by donations from Jake Arrieta, Zach Britton, Jim Johnson and Matt Wieters.

The Orioles also support Welcome Back Veterans, a program that addresses the needs of returning American veterans and their families. To show their support and raise awareness, the Orioles, along with all other Major League Baseball teams, wore special "Stars and Stripes" hats for their games on Memorial Day, Independence Day and Patriot Day. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of the hats went to benefit Welcome Back Veterans. On July 22, as part of Military Appreciation Day, the Orioles hosted over 5,000 military members and their families through the Veteran Tickets Foundation, a non-profit organization that provides event tickets for military veterans and their families.

The Orioles also orchestrated a video series for deployed soldiers. Maryland based soldiers currently serving in Iraq recorded video messages for the Orioles that were played in-game. The Orioles invited family members of those soldiers to the game, allowing them to see their loved ones on the video board. In return, many of the Orioles players recorded their own video messages for the soldiers that were sent to them in Iraq, thanking them for their service.

FIELD TRIP DAY

For the fourth consecutive season, OriolesREACH partnered with MASN and WJZ-TV to host Field Trip Day at Oriole Park. On May 26, more than 7,000 students from local elementary and middle schools gathered at Camden Yards to learn about the weather from WJZ-TV's First Warning Weather Team of Bob Turk, Bernadette Woods and Tim Williams. Orioles Head Groundskeeper Nicole Sherry and Chris Strong from the National Weather Service also explained to the students how weather patterns affect the playing conditions at Oriole Park, as well as impact the game itself. The students learned about the jet stream, clouds, winter weather, lightning, tornadoes and hurricanes prior to that day's afternoon game against the Royals.

25th ANNUAL ORIOLES REACH FOOD DRIVE

The Orioles Wives, Oriole Advocates, MASN and WJZ-TV teamed up to host the 25th Annual OriolesREACH Food Drive at Camden Yards July 15-17, to benefit the Maryland Food Bank. Representatives were stationed at each entry gate at the park to collect non-perishable food items and cash donations for the Maryland Food Bank and their work with local soup kitchens, food pantries and emergency shelters throughout Central Maryland. More than 4,660 pounds of food and over $21,000 in cash donations were collected.

CARDBOARD TO LEATHER COLLECTION

On September 18, the Orioles and OriolesREACH teamed up with the Oriole Advocates and Legg Mason to hold the Annual Cardboard to Leather Collection. Fans were encouraged to bring donations of new or gently used baseball and softball equipment or monetary donations to help support youth in Nicaragua and Puerto Rico, as well as youth in Japan who were affected by the tsunami. A silent auction was also held during the game, while representatives from Legg Mason presented the Oriole Advocates Charitable Fund with a $20,000 contribution to the Cardboard to Leather Equipment Collection. In addition, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund awarded a grant of $5,000 to the Oriole Advocates Charitable Foundation for the purchase of new equipment. The collection resulted in over 1,590 items of equipment and $4,000 in cash donations.

SAVES FOR SHOCK TRAUMA

UMMS teamed up with Kelly and Associates Insurance Group and KTBS Payroll to donate $1,000 to the R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center for each Orioles save during the 2011 season. In a pre-game ceremony on September 28, Kelly and Associates and KTBS Payroll presented a check for $32,000 to Shock Trauma.

CARE FIRST AND THE ORIOLES TEAM UP TO HELP CHILDREN

CareFirst BlueCross/BlueShield donated $50 to support the Living Classrooms Foundation for each Orioles walk in 2011. To complement the over $16,000 in Healthy Walks earned, CareFirst increased their contribution and presented a check on September 27 in the amount of $75,000 to support the Healthy Lifestyles Anti-Violence program at Living Classrooms.

DAY AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted more than 40,000 youth at Camden Yards in 2011 through their 56th annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), two Little League Days (21,000), Day Camper Day (5,000), Buddies Night (4,000) and Scouts Night (1,500).

SHANNON'S FUND

In 2008, the Orioles and OriolesREACH established Shannon's Fund, a $50,000 endowment at the University of Maryland Medical Center to provide financial assistance to hospital patients and their families. Created in memory of Shannon Obaker – the team's Director of Community Outreach who bravely fought cancer for over a year before passing away in January 2007 at age 29 – Shannon's Fund is administered by the University of Maryland Medical Center. Funds will be donated to patients and their family members as the need arises to assist with the general expenses associated with the treatment process, including hospital parking, alternate housing, food costs and household bills. On August 29, Carroll Independent Fuel and BP presented a check for $10,000 to Shannon's Fund.

HIGH FIVE FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The OriolesREACH High Five Fundraising Program continues to help local non-profit groups, civic organizations, school and youth groups raise money for their efforts. Since its inception in 2005, the High Five Program has helped to raise well over $850,000 for these groups.

ORIOLES ALUMNI AUTOGRAPH SERIES

In 2011, the Orioles continued the popular Orioles Alumni Autograph Series. Before every Monday and Thursday home game, fans met some of their favorite former Orioles at Camden Yards. The former players signed autographs and shared memories at the MASN Booth on Eutaw Street for an hour before each game. Some of the players who participated last year included Mike Boddicker, Mike Bordick, Don Buford, Al Bumbry, Andy Etchebarren, Dan Ford, Ron Hansen, Chris Hoiles, Bill Hunter, Tippy Martinez, Ben McDonald, Scott McGregor, Curt Motton, Joe Orsulak and Larry Sheets.

IN THE COMMUNITY

ORIOLES WIVES PARTNER WITH HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

On May 20, Orioles Wives participated in the demolition and rebuild of a Baltimore row home as part of Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake's Baltimore Women Build project. On August 17, Orioles employees helped out on the same project. To date, female volunteers have built more than 1,800 Habitat houses nationwide during National Women Build Week. Locally, Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake has constructed nine Women Build houses.

ORIOLES FANFEST

On January 21, Orioles FanFest was held at the Baltimore Convention Center. A day-long celebration of baseball, FanFest featured autograph signings by current and former Orioles players and coaches, question and answer forums with players, coaches and media, clinics taught by players and coaches, exhibits, giveaways and interactive games. Over 9,000 people attended the event, and $92,860 was raised for children's charities via OriolesREACH through the sale of autograph vouchers, memorabilia, grab bags and a silent auction.

BALTIMORE CITY YOUTH CLINIC AT RADECKE PARK

On June 11, the Orioles hosted their annual youth baseball clinic at Radecke Park with more than 300 pre-registered Baltimore City youngsters. Orioles Adam Jones and Jake Arrieta, and first base coach Wayne Kirby offered instruction along with former Orioles Bill Swaggerty, Al Bumbry, Ken Dixon, Rick Krivda and Joe Orsulak. The Orioles also provided tickets to that night's game for all children who participated.

ARRIETA AND BRITTON TEAM WITH UNDER ARMOUR AND WOUNDED WARRIORS

On June 7, Orioles pitchers Jake Arrieta and Zack Britton, along with several Orioles front office employees, assisted Under Armour in stuffing 300 backpacks for wounded servicemen and women as part of the company's Under Armour/Wounded Warrior Project Backpack Build.

LEARNING WITH THE ORIOLES

For the third consecutive year, OriolesREACH teamed up with Baltimore City Public Schools and T. Rowe Price to support "Learning with the Orioles," a comprehensive summer learning program teaching math, reading, science and social studies skills to nearly 14,000 students at 80 city public elementary and middle schools. The program blends skills from each academic discipline for each grade level with facts and games related to the Orioles and baseball. It represents a new style of curriculum for City Schools, one that integrates several different academic subjects into a program that is educational, fun and includes enrichment activities, including a visit to Camden Yards at the end of the summer session. More than 5,000 City Schools students also received free tickets to attend the July 20 Orioles game at Camden Yards.

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

Last season, OriolesREACH once again teamed up with the University of Maryland Medical Center to host a series of American Red Cross Blood Drives. Participants received exclusive gifts such as an "I Bleed Orange and Black" t-shirt, an Orioles pint glass, Oriole Park VIP experiences, and free tickets to an Orioles game.

MATT WIETERS AT PLAY CLINIC

On June 28, catcher Matt Wieters and members of the Orioles staff in conjunction with We Promote Health and HC Drug Free, welcomed 100 Howard County youth from the PLAY campaign to Camden

Yards. PLAY, which stands for Promoting a Lifetime of Activity for Youth, is a public awareness campaign of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), in conjunction with the Taylor Hooton Foundation. The PLAY campaign combats childhood obesity and promotes healthy living and decision making among young people in America. The youth heard positive messages from Wieters about making smart life choices, avoiding drugs, and living a more active and healthy lifestyle.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITY (RBI) LEAGUE

Funded by the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation, the Reviving Baseball in the Inner City (RBI) League was established to help Baltimore City kids build self esteem while learning baseball skills in a fun and safe environment. All summer, more than 300 Baltimore teenagers participated in the league. The Orioles honored the league champions with special pre-game ceremonies on August 12 and Adam Jones presented each player with a trophy. In addition to a league championship, two all-star teams received the opportunity to travel to Harrisburg, PA and represent Baltimore in the regional tournament.

KIDS' HOLIDAY PARTY

This past December, Jake Arrieta, Zach Britton, Jeremy Guthrie, Brian Roberts and Buck Showalter joined former Orioles Al Bumbry, Dave Johnson and Larry Sheets to host the 33rd annual OriolesREACH Holiday Party for Kids. Over 90 third and fourth graders from City Springs Elementary School in Baltimore enjoyed games and lunch at Dave & Busters in the Arundel Mills Mall. The Right Side Foundation, the personal charity of Nick and Christina Markakis, made a financial contribution for the party and provided a copy of the book The Polar Express as well as a new baseball glove for each child. Johnson dressed as Santa Claus and distributed the numerous gifts to the children.

ORIOLES AND T. ROWE PRICE SUMMER READING PROGRAM

The Orioles once again partnered with Maryland Public Libraries to present their annual Summer Reading Program, presented by T. Rowe Price, to local participants at more than 180 Maryland public library branches. The program was designed to encourage and reward area youth who commit to reading throughout the summer. Beginning in June, children from elementary school through high school were able to register at any Maryland Public Library and receive a Reading Log that guided them through the Summer Reading Program. Kids who completed the Reading Log received prizes including Orioles game tickets. All told, more than 150,000 students participated in the Summer Reading Program.

SHOWALTERS SUPPORT KIDS PEACE

Buck Showalter and his wife Angela are avid supporters of KidsPeace, a private charity dedicated to serving the behavioral and mental health needs of children, families and communities in the Baltimore area. The Showalters filmed a public service announcement in support of the charity last summer, hosted a KidsPeace 5K run and walk in October 2011 and have participated in other fundraising events for the organization.

PLAYER AND MASCOT APPEARANCES

One of the best examples of the Orioles reaching out into the community is when Orioles players themselves appear all over town. Current and former Orioles players made over 150 appearances in the community in 2011 and the Oriole Bird flew to more than 250 destinations in the past year. Among the many appearances in 2011 were a visit by Jake Arrieta and Zach Britton to Johns Hopkins Hospital, Adam Jones at the Weinberg Family Center Y in Baltimore, a Brian Matusz visit with pediatric patients at the Herman and Walter Samuelson Children's Hospital at Sinai, and many players signing autographs for fans at the Orioles Team Store in York, PA throughout the season.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate memorabilia items to charitable non-profit organizations for fundraising activities. Through these contributions the Orioles helped hundreds of non-profit organizations raise money for their causes in 2011.

MANAGER & COACHES

BUCK SHOWALTER

26

MANAGER

Full Name: William Nathaniel "Buck" Showalter

Born: May 23, 1956

2012 Opening Day Age: 55

Birthplace/Residence: Born in DeFuniak Springs, FL...Resides in Dallas, TX and Baltimore, MD

Contract Status: Signed through 2013

M.L. Service: Is in his 19th season as a manager in professional baseball, his 14th season as a manager in the major leagues and his third as manager of the Orioles.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

A two-time Manager of the Year (1994 and 2004), Buck Showalter enters his third season with the Orioles with 985 career wins, seventh most among active major league managers and tied for 60th all-time. He will become the 58th manager in MLB history to reach 1,000 wins when he reaches the milestone. In his managerial career, Showalter is 985-949 in 13 seasons as manager of the New York Yankees (313-268; 1992-1995), Arizona Diamondbacks (250-236; 1998-2000), Texas Rangers (319-329; 2003-06) and Orioles (103-116; 2010-Current). He recorded his 900th career win on September 4, 2010 against Tampa Bay.

Showalter was hired as the 19th manager in Orioles history on July 29, 2010 and took the helm on August 2, directing the club to a 34-23 finish, the second-best record in the AL over the last 57 games behind Minnesota's 35-22 finish. Showalter became the first manager since 1900 to take over a team on August 1 or later and win more games the rest of the way (34) than the club won before he took over (32). He is also the first manager in major league history to win seven of his first eight games after taking over a team in mid-season that was 20 or more games under .500.

Showalter spent the first 19 years of his professional baseball career in the New York Yankees organization, culminating in a four-year stint as manager from 1992-95. In 1994 Showalter earned AL Manager of the Year honors, guiding New York to a 70-43 record before the strike ended the season prematurely. The next season, he led the Yankees to their first playoff berth in 14 years and managed the American League All-Star team. He was the youngest manager in the major leagues in each of his four seasons in New York.

In November 1995, Showalter joined the Arizona Diamondbacks, 28 months before the expansion franchise began play, and helped shape the new team's major league operations. In 1999, he guided the Diamondbacks to a 100-win season and the NL West division title, an improvement of 35 victories over the previous season, the most in major league history.

Showalter joined the Texas Rangers prior to the 2003 season and, in 2004, led the club to an 18-win improvement over the previous year, earning his second Manager of the Year honor.

Showalter's managerial career began in 1985 with the Oneonta Yankees. He managed for five seasons in the Yankees minor league system, earning Eastern League Minor League Manager of the Year honors in 1989, prior to joining the major league coaching staff in 1990.

Texas: Ranks fourth on the Rangers all-time manager's win list with 319...Only Bobby Valentine (581), Johnny Oates (506) and Ron Washington (427) have more wins as the Rangers skipper...Named the BBWAA's American League Manager of the Year in 2004 after guiding the Rangers to an 89-73 record, leading a team that was not eliminated from playoff contention until the final week of the season...Piloted the club to a third place finish in the AL West, just 3.0 games behind division champion Anaheim...Club's 89 victories marked an 18-win improvement over its 2003 finish, matching the third-largest increase between two seasons in Rangers history...Named the 2004 The Sporting News AL Co-Manager of the Year, winning that award for the second time (also 1994)...Tied with the Twins' Ron Gardenhire for The Sporting News award in 2004...Was appointed as the 16th full time manager in club history on October 11, 2002, signing a 4-year contract.

Arizona: Guided the Diamondbacks to a 250-236 (.514) record from 1998-2000, the franchise's first three seasons in the National League...2000: Arizona led the NL West for first four months before finishing third at 85-77, 12 games behind San Francisco...1999: Guided the Diamondbacks to the NL West title with a 100-62 record, 14 games ahead of San Francisco...Marked the first time that an expansion team had ever won a division title in as few as two years...Increase of 35 victories from 1998 represented the biggest improvement in major league history...Diamondbacks won 51 of final 68 games...Arizona lost in four games to the New York Mets in the NL Division Series...1998: In its inaugural season, Arizona was 65-97, the fourth most wins ever for an expansion club in its first year...Won seven consecutive contests, August 28-September 4, tying the 1961 Los Angeles Angels for longest winning streak ever for an expansion team...Joined the Arizona organization as its first manager on November 15, 1995, 28 months before the NL expansion club began play...During that period was instrumental in the formation of Arizona's major league operation and was heavily involved in the scouting of major and minor league talent.

New York Yankees: Had a 313-268 record (.539) in four seasons as New York's manager...At that time was the longest consecutive tenure for a Yankees skipper since Ralph Houk managed from 1966-73...Was the major leagues' youngest manager in each of his four seasons at New York...1995: Yankees earned their first postseason appearance since 1981, winning the AL Wild Card with a 78-66 record, second in the East, seven games behind Boston...New York won nine of final 10 games to earn playoff berth...Won first two games of AL Division Series versus Seattle before dropping final three contests in the Kingdome...Managed the AL squad in the July 11 All-Star Game at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington, losing to the NL, 3-2...1994: Guided Yankees to 70-43 record, a .619 winning percentage that ranked as second best in the majors at time of players' strike on August 12...Had a 6.5 game lead in AL East, biggest advantage of any division...Won his 200th game as a Yankee on June 13 in Baltimore at the age of 38, second youngest New York skipper to reach that milestone behind Clark Griffith at age 35 in 1905...Selected as the AL Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and The Sporting News...1993: New York finished second in AL East at 88-74, 7 games behind Toronto and a 13-game improvement from 1992...Finished second in AL BBWAA Manager of the Year balloting behind Chicago's Gene Lamont...1992: Appointed as the 30th Yankees manager on October 29, 1991 at age 35, the club's youngest skipper since Roger Peckinpaugh (23) in 1914...New York went 76-86, a 5-game improvement from 1991 and had second best start in team history at 6-0...Served as a coach for Tom Kelly in the All-Star Game at San Diego, the first Yankee manager to achieve that distinction since Houk in 1970.

New York Organization: Spent the first 19 seasons of his pro career in the Yankees organization...Was on New York's major league coaching staff for two seasons, serving as team's "eye in the sky coach" for the first half of 1990 and as third base coach from June 6, 1990 through 1991...Compiled a 360-207 record in five seasons as a minor league manager from 1985-1989 with four first place finishes...Had a 14-4 record in postseason play, winning league championships at Oneonta (New York-Penn) in 1985, Fort Lauderdale (Florida State) in 1987, and Albany-Colonie (Eastern) in 1989...Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1989 as Albany-Colonie won 92 games, most for a Yankee farm club since 1980...Oneonta established New York-Penn League records for victories in both 1985 (55) and 1986 (59)...Served as third base coach at Fort Lauderdale in 1984.

PLAYING CAREER

A fifth-round selection by the Yankees in the 1977 draft, he spent seven seasons as first baseman-outfielder in Yankees minor league system from 1977-83 with a career .294 average...Led Southern League in hits (152) at Nashville in 1982...Was a teammate of Don Mattingly at Nashville in 1981...Also topped SL in hits (178, a league record that still stands) and finished second in average (.324) in 1980, when Nashville won a league record 97 games...Teammates that year included future major leaguers Steve Balboni, Tom Filer, Andy McGaffigan, Willie McGee, Rafael Santana and Pat Tabler.

GOING, GOING, GONE

In 1986, Orioles pitchers Scott McGregor, Ken Dixon and Mike Boddicker became the first trio of teammates to give up at least 30 home runs in a season. McGregor allowed 35, Dixon 33 and Boddicker 30. It has been done 4 times since, the last coming in 2003 by Seattle's Ryan Franklin, Freddy Garcia and Gil Meche.

ELROD HENDRICKS (1940-2005)

No one logged more time in an Orioles uniform than Elrod Hendricks. For 37 seasons, Ellie opened the year in an Orioles jersey as a player or coach, 16 more years than Brooks Robinson or Cal Ripken. He spent 45 years on the field in organized baseball, the last 28 of them as the Orioles' bullpen coach. Elrod served as a catcher for the Orioles from 1968 until he was traded to the Cubs during the 1972 season, and again from 1973 until he was traded to the Yankees during the 1976 campaign. He was named the bullpen coach following the 1977 season but was activated in each of his first two seasons as a coach.

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955

Richie is in his 25th season as the Orioles' Head Athletic Trainer, his 29th year with the big league club and his 36th in the Orioles organization. Only the third Head Athletic Trainer in the 58 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954, he has the longest tenure of anyone to work as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. In 2011, Bancells received the Herb Armstrong Award, which honors non-uniformed club personnel for their significant contribution to the ballclub, the community and the sport of baseball. Following the 2011 season, Bancells and his assistant, Brian

Ebel, were named the 2011 Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year by PBATS. Bancells was inducted into the Maryland Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in 2008.

Richie joined the Orioles organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to AAA Rochester in 1980. He served four years as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary (1980-83). During that time, he also assisted Salvon during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami, FL. He became Ralph's assistant trainer in 1984, serving four years before becoming head trainer in 1988, as Salvon took over the assistant title before his untimely passing in July of that year.

Richie was elected in December 2007 to a two-year term as president of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and is currently serving a third term as president. He previously served as a board member and treasurer for the organization, as well as secretary of PBATS' Executive Committee. He also currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Bancells has been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games, in 1993 at Camden Yards and in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park. In November 2002, he served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan. In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

In 2005, the Orioles created the Ralph Salvon-Richie Bancells Award for Excellence in the Field of Emergency Medical Service, to be given to local area medical professionals who think and act quickly and demonstrate excellence in the wake of an emergency medical situation. Richie was honored as the first recipient for his actions in diagnosing and promptly treating a stroke suffered by Orioles coach Elrod Hendricks, minutes before the team was to board a flight home from Tampa Bay earlier in the 2005 season.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by ECU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and is a licensed Athletic Trainer in Maryland and Florida.

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (31), Andrea (26) and Timothy (20), and a grandson, Ryan (son of Christopher). Timothy is an infielder at Concord University in Athens, West Virginia. Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

MANAGER & COACHES

BRIAN EBEL MBA, ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: December 26, 1965

Brian is in his 16th season as the Orioles' Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 28th season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff. Following the 2011 season, Brian and Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells were named the 2011 Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year by PBATS. Brian was also selected as the Athletic Trainer for the Major league Baseball All-Star Tour of Taiwan following the 2011 season.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head athletic trainer for the Orioles' rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles' spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a licensed Athletic Trainer in Maryland and Florida. Brian is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells) by ECU as a distinguished alumnus.

In 2008, Brian was named to Major League Baseball's steering committee for Electronic Medical Records. He has been a member of MLB's Medical Advisory Board since May 2003 and in 2010 was appointed to serve on MLB's Injury Surveillance System (ISS) committee. He served on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP) from 2003-2010.

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties. He also served as Athletic Trainer for the American League at the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He has authored or co-authored research papers and book chapters on shoulder and elbow injuries as it relates to the throwing motion by professional athletes, and has lectured on elbow rehabilitation. Brian has a United States patent pending for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of Plantar Fasciitis and heel pain.

Brian grew up in Versailles, IN and married the former Nancy Swanson on October 26, 1991. They have two sons, Brady (18) and Brett (15), and live in Sparks, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and playing the drums.

RONNIE DECK

BULLPEN CATCHER

Born: October 24, 1977

Deck returns for his fifth season as the Orioles' bullpen catcher. Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as hitting coach for the 2007 Frontier League champion Windy City ThunderBolts and was an assistant coach at Oglethorpe University and assistant coach and sports information coordinator at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, CO in 2006.

A 1998 graduate of Oklahoma Christian University, where he was a GTE Academic All-America and All-Sooner Athletic Conference catcher, Deck played seven seasons of pro ball, including two seasons in the Tampa Bay organization (2002-03), spending time at Princeton and Hudson Valley in the New-York Penn League, Class-A Charleston and Bakersfield and AA Orlando. He also played five years in independent leagues.

JOE HOGARTY

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: November 28, 1977

Joe is in his third season as the Orioles' major league strength and conditioning coach and his ninth in the Baltimore organization. Prior to joining the major league staff, he spent the previous two seasons as the Orioles' Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, where he was responsible for implementing programs and procedures in accordance with injury prevention and performance enhancement.

Joe spent four years (2004-2007) as the strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles' AAA affiliates at Norfolk and Ottawa while assisting the Major League staff in spring training in Fort Lauderdale, FL. Previous to joining the Baltimore Orioles, Joe served as an Athletic Trainer and Strength and Conditioning intern for the Boston Red Sox in 2003. While working outside the baseball calendar, Joe has spent time in sports medicine roles at Northeastern University (MA) and at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, NY.

Hogarty is a 2001 graduate of Bridgewater State University (formerly Bridgewater State College, Bridgewater, MA) with a degree in Physical Education (Athletic Training).

Hogarty holds certifications with the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA, RSCC) and the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA).

His uncle, William Hogarty, was a former draft pick of the Washington Senators (1955).

Joe, and his wife, Gulie, reside in Baltimore.

JIM TYLER

ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948

Jim Tyler begins his 51st year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse in order, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (31) and Joshua (30). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960

Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Fred was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen HS right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 25

KEVIN BUCK

TEAM TRAVEL COORDINATOR

Born: October 28, 1981

Kevin enters his fourth year of handling team travel arrangements and accommodations. Buck began traveling with the club in 2009 and handles all aspects of team travel and ticketing for road games.

Kevin joined the Orioles in 2003 as a part-time employee in the Sales and Fan Services department. In 2005, he became a full-time New Sales Representative and worked with Season Plan Holders and group events for two years before taking a position as Market Research Manager in 2007. In 2009, Kevin was named Coordinator of Team Travel to assist legendary Orioles' Traveling Secretary Phil Itzoe, and spent the season handling the Orioles' travel and ticket needs.

A native of Cockeysville, MD, Kevin has spent the majority of his life in the Baltimore area. A lifetime Orioles fan, he grew up playing baseball in the Cockeysville area and attended Dulaney High School before graduating in 1999 and enrolling at the University of Richmond. He graduated from UR with a degree in Marketing and Communications in 2003, and immediately began work with the Orioles.

Kevin, and his wife, Cassandra, reside in Baltimore.

NICOLE SHERRY

HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: October 29, 1977

Nicole Sherry begins her sixth season as the Orioles' head groundskeeper. She returned to the Orioles organization in 2007 after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as Head Groundskeeper with a major league team. Nicole and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

After serving as the Orioles' assistant head groundskeeper from 2001 through 2003, Sherry spent three seasons (2004-2006) as the head groundskeeper for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, AA affiliate of the New York Yankees. She was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the EL's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

A native of New Castle, DE, Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as assistant head groundskeeper. Nicole resides in Baltimore.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher (17), when he did it, September 22, 1968-August 3, 1969, with all victories coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever (10) is shared by Wes Stock (September 10, 1962-April 29, 1964) and Sammy Stewart (July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984). Stewart added a victory as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game streak.

BIRDS BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December, 1954, the Orioles and New York Yankees engineered a 17-player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter and outfielders Ted del Guercico and Jim Fridley. The Orioles acquired pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller, catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kai Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

GAME HIGHS & STREAKS

LONGEST OUTING: 9.0 innings, May 12, 2011 vs. Seattle...STRIKEOUT HIGH: 7, September 17, 2011 vs. Los Angeles Angels...WALK HIGH: 4, three times, most recently September 22, 2011 at Detroit...HR ALLOWED: 2, September 27, 2011 vs. Boston...WINNING STREAK: 3 games, April 20-May 1, 2011 and August 22-September 2, 2011...LOSING STREAK: 5 games, June 22-August 4, 2011.

- Allowed one earned run over his first two major league appearances (13.2 IP)
- According to Elias, since the Orioles moved to Baltimore in 1954, only Tom Phoebus won his first two MLB games, both as a starting pitcher, allowing no more than one run combined
- Prior to Britton, the last Oriole pitcher to allow one or fewer runs in the first 13.2 innings of his career was Kurt Birkins in May 2006 (he allowed one run, all innings pitched in relief)...The last O's pitcher to allow a total of one-or-fewer runs in his first two career starts was Chuck McElroy in Sept. of 2000 (11.0IP, 1ER)...McElroy had 603 relief outings in the bigs before his first two starts in 2000
- Worked nine scoreless innings in that May 12 start and was opposed by Jason Vargas, who also worked nine scoreless innings...The last time the Orioles played a game in which both pitchers went nine innings was July 11, 2003 (Baltimore's Rodrigo Lopez and Oakland's Tim Hudson)...It also marked the first time two major league pitchers went nine innings or more each and were both non-decisioned since July 10, 2010 (Philadelphia's Roy Halladay and Cincinnati's Travis Wood)...It was just the third such occurrence in the big leagues since 2000...The last O's starter to throw nine shutout IP and not factor in the decision was Mike Morgan on April 16, 1988 against Cleveland
- Joined Jake Arrieta as the first pair of Oriole starters to both have five wins by May 20 since Erik Bedard (5) and Kris Benson in 2006
- Recorded five hits in his three Interleague Play starts, going 5-for-8 with a double, a homer with two RBI and three runs scored...According to Elias, his five hits were the most in one season by an AL pitcher since the creation of the designated hitter in 1974
- Set a career-high with three straight wins April 20-May 1 and tied that mark August 22-September 1
- Struck out a career-high seven September 17 against Los Angeles
- Had a streak of 19.1 scoreless innings over three starts from May 6-18
- In his two starts, July 8-30, he became the first player in major league history to allow eight-or-more runs while lasting less than an inning in each of two consecutive starts
- In his August 28 start against the Yankees (over 7.0 innings) he threw a career-high 120 pitches, the most by an Oriole pitcher in 2011 and most by an Orioles starter against the Yankees since Sidney Ponson threw 128 in 5.2 innings on June 1, 2004 in the Bronx
- Pitched to a 3.09 ERA (87.1IP, 30ER) at home and a 6.58 ERA (67.0IP, 49ER) on the road
- Was 3-1 with a 2.02 ERA (35.2IP, 8ER) in five starts against the AL West
- Had a 4.05 ERA (104.1IP, 47ER) before the All-Star break, but pitched to a 5.76 ERA (50.0IP, 32ER) after the break
- Was 4-1 with a 2.84 ERA (31.2IP, 10ER) in five April starts and 2-1 with a 2.60 ERA (17.1IP, 5ER) in three August starts
- Opponents batted .228 (72-316) against him at home and .331 (90-272) on the road
- Made one start for Triple-A Norfolk August 16 and allowed one run over five innings on three hits and a walk against Charlotte
- Made three starts for Double-A Bowie July 15-25, going 0-2 with a 5.40 ERA (11.2IP, 7ER)

PRO CAREER

2010: Received the Jim Palmer Award as the Orioles top minor league pitcher...Was named to the Eastern League All-Star Team...Was named the second best prospect in the Orioles organization by Baseball America following the 2010 season...Was named the Orioles Organizational Pitcher of the Month for June when he went 3-0 with a 0.66 ERA in four starts...Was named the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for June 21-27, when he tossed 8.0 innings, allowing one run on four hits and striking out nine...Made seven consecutive Quality Starts at Bowie, May 21-June 25 before being promoted to Norfolk on July 1...Led all Tides pitchers who made at least 12 starts with a 2.98 ERA...Matched his career-best in strikeouts with nine on three occasions (June 25 at Altoona, August 14 against Charlotte and September 4 at Durham).

2009: Was named the 2009 Carolina League Pitcher of the Year...Was named to the 2009 Carolina League All-Star Team and the 2009 Carolina League Post-Season All-Star Team...Was named the third best prospect in the Orioles system by Baseball America...Finished second in the league in ERA (2.70) and strikeouts (131), fourth in innings pitched (140.0) and tied for fifth in wins (9)...Led the Keys in all four categories...Also led the team in games started (24)...Tied a career-high with nine strikeouts June 29 against Wilmington...Began the season with five consecutive starts allowing two earned runs or less and ended the season with nine consecutive starts allowing three earned runs or less.

2008: Finished seventh in the league in ERA (3.12) and fourth in innings pitched (147.1)...Tied for team lead in wins (12) and starts (27) and finished second on the club in strikeouts (114)...Threw a complete game (7.0 IP) on May 21 against Kannapolis, allowing one run on five hits...Made 15 quality starts and struck out a season-high nine batters on June 25 against Lake County.

2007: Went 6-4 with a 3.68 ERA in 15 starts for Aberdeen...Pitched to an 8.00 ERA in June (9.0IP, 8ER), but had a 2.96 ERA (54.2IP, 18ER) after July 1.

2006: Went winless in 11 starts for Rookie League Bluefield...Lost three straight starts, 7/30-8/10...Pitched a season-high 5.0 innings and did not allow a run on 8/15 at Pulaski, but did not receive a decision...Surrendered 5 runs in 1.2 innings in his next start at Burlington, the only time he allowed more than three runs in an outing.

DID YOU KNOW?

- O's infielder Wayne Gross became the first player in major league history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 HR and drove in 18 runs. O's catcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs in a season, when he did it in 1992.
- The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.
- Orioles Hall of Fame pitcher Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in three different decades.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, adjacent to Oriole Park. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on learning areas for children, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between the sites.

For Museum information, call 410-727-1539 or visit www.baberruthmuseum.com.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former O's are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat.

PRO CAREER

2010: Posted a 4-9 record and 4.49 ERA in 25 games (24 starts) for the Tigers...Had an 0-3 record and 11.20 ERA in 3 consecutive starts from Sept. 15-27, and posted a 4-6 mark and 3.80 ERA in his other 22 games...Also posted a 4-2 mark with a 3.65 ERA in 8 games (7 starts) for Triple-A Toledo...Opened the season at Toledo and compiled a 3-2 record and 2.30 ERA (31.1IP, 8ER) with 28 strikeouts in 5 starts during April...Tied for second in the International League in wins and strikeouts during the month...Was recalled by the Tigers on May 16...In his fourth start after being called up, carried a perfect game into the ninth inning on June 2 vs. Indians before a Jason Donald single broke it up with 2 outs...Donald hit a ground ball to first baseman Miguel Cabrera, who tossed to Galarraga – who was covering first base – but first base umpire Jim Joyce incorrectly called Donald safe on a close play, ending the perfect game and no-hitter...Closed out the game to become the first Tigers pitcher to toss a 1-hit shutout since Mike Maroth did so at Comerica Park vs. Yankees on July 16, 2004...According to Elias Sports Bureau, the last Tigers pitcher to have a perfect game broken up with 2 outs in the ninth inning was Milt Wilcox at Chicago's Comiskey Park against the White Sox on April 15, 1983 when Jerry Hairston singled...Completed the 1-hitter with 88 pitches, 67 of them for strikes...if he had completed the game at 83 pitches on Donald's ground ball, it would have been the lowest number of pitches thrown since Addie Joss' 74 pitches in 1908, and the shortest game since Sandy Koufax's perfect game in 1965...Had he completed the perfect game, it would have been the second perfect game in just four days after Phillies' Roy Halladay threw his on May 29...it would have also been the third perfect game of the season (also A's Dallas Braden on May 9, 2010) and the fourth in the last 10 months (also White Sox's Mark Buehrle on July 23, 2009)...Tabbed as the AL Player for the Week for May 31-June 6 for his efforts in the near perfect game...Went 1-1 with a 5.61 ERA in 6 starts after the near perfect game and was optioned to Toledo on July 6...Appeared in one game with the Mud Hens before being recalled by the Tigers for the remainder of the season on July 19...Matched his career-high with 8 strikeouts on Aug. 20 vs. Indians...Compiled a 1-0 record and 2.01 ERA (31.1IP, 7ER) over a 5-start stretch, Aug. 20-Sept. 10.

2009: Went 6-10 with a 5.64 ERA in 29 games (25 starts) for the Tigers...Started 25 games for the Tigers but then made his last 4 appearances out of the bullpen from Sept. 11-Oct. 3 (0-0, 12.00 ERA)...Established a career-high with 8 strikeouts on April 10 vs. Rangers...Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for April after going 3-0 with a 1.85 ERA (5 ER in 24.1 IP) in 4 starts...

Tied for the fourth in the AL with 3 wins during the month...Suffered through a career-high 7-game losing streak during 9 starts from May 1-June 13, posting a 7.54 ERA (45.1IP, 38ER)...Earned the win on June 30 @ A's despite matching his career-high with 6 walks in the game...Went 1-1 with a 2.36 ERA (26.2IP, 7ER) over a 4-start stretch from June 30-July 22...Optioned to Triple-A Toledo on Aug. 26...Did not appear in a game with the Mud Hens before being recalled by the Tigers on Sept. 5.

2008: Led all AL rookie pitchers with 13 wins and 126 strikeouts while finishing third with a 3.73 ERA in his first season with the Tigers...Named the Detroit Sports Broadcasters' Association Tigers Rookie of the Year...Also named the Tigers' Pitcher of the Month four times during the season...Finished second in the AL with a .226 opponents batting average and 7.66 hits-per-9.0 innings...His 126 strikeouts were the second-most by a rookie pitcher in Tigers history and marked the most strikeouts in franchise history by a right-handed rookie pitcher...Compiled an 8-4 record and 3.36 ERA (99.0IP, 37ER) in 17 outings (15 starts) on the road...Road ERA ranked 10th in the AL...Limited right-handed batters to a .174 batting average (52-299), which was tops among AL pitchers...Opened the season with Toledo and went 2-0 with a 2.25 ERA in 2 starts...Recalled by the Tigers on April 16 when Dontrelle Willis was placed on the disabled list...Earned his first big league win that night after striking out 6 batters while allowing just 2 runs in 6.2 innings @CLE...Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for April after going 2-0 with a 1.50 ERA (18.0IP, 3ER) in 3 starts...Allowed one hit in 6.0 innings of work on May 17 @ARI to earn the win...Marked the second time in 2008 that he held an opponent to one hit while working at least 6.0 innings (also April 16 @CLE) to become the lone Tigers rookie pitcher to accomplish the feat twice during the same season since at least 1956...Had a 4-game winning streak from May 28-June 18 over which he compiled a 2.10 ERA (30.0IP, 7ER) over 5 games (4 starts)...Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for the second straight month in May after going 2-2 with a 4.55 ERA in 5 starts...Matched his career-high with 3.0 innings of relief on June 3 @OAK...Posted a 3-0 record and 3.34 ERA (32.1IP, 12ER) in 6 outings (5 starts) during June...Carried a perfect game through 6.0 innings on July 23 @KC before surrendering a single to David DeJesus to leadoff the seventh inning...Established a then-career-high with 7 strikeouts in the game...Compiled a career-high 5-game winning streak from July 23-Aug. 19...Posted a 2.54 ERA (39.0IP, 11ER) in 6 games...Garnered Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for July after finishing the month with a 2-2 record and 3.23 ERA (30.2IP, 11ER) in 5 starts...Finished 12th in the AL in ERA during July...Went 3-0 with a 2.66 ERA (40.2IP, 12ER) in 6 starts during August to earn Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors...Finished ninth in the AL in ERA during August.

2007: Saw action with Double-A Frisco and Triple-A Oklahoma before joining the Rangers as a September call-up for his first taste of the Majors...Opened the season with Frisco...Tied for the Texas League lead with 2 shutouts, while finishing tied for second with 2 complete games and fourth with 114 strikeouts...Finished second among all TL starters with 8.09 strikeouts-per-9.0 innings...Transferred to Oklahoma on May 21...Made 1 start before returning to Frisco the next day...Named TL Pitcher of the Week for July 2-8 after going 1-1 with a 1.80 ERA (15.0IP, 3ER) in 2 starts...Finished 3-1 with a 1.58 ERA (40.0IP, 7ER) in 6 starts during July...His ERA was third in EL during that time...Transferred back to Oklahoma on Aug. 15...Posted a 2-1 record and 3.38 ERA (18.2IP, 7ER) in 3 starts during August...Tossed a 2-hit shutout in the first game of a doubleheader on Aug. 25 @Nashville...Transferred back to Frisco on Sept. 4 but did not pitch before being recalled by the Rangers on Sept. 12...Made his Major League debut on Sept. 15, tossing a scoreless inning of relief @OAK...Named the 30th-best prospect in the Rangers organization following the season by Baseball America.

2006: Made 18 starts over 4 stops in the Rangers organization despite being sidelined with a right elbow strain for most of the season...Opened the season with Frisco and made 9 starts before being placed on the disabled list on May 27...Started 6 games during 2 separate injury rehab stints with the Arizona League Rangers...Also made a start for Single-A Spokane on Aug. 21 before being reinstated from the disabled list on Aug. 23...Transferred to Single-A Bakersfield on Aug. 24...Named the 15th-best prospect in the Rangers organization following the season by Baseball America.

2005: Split the season between Single-A Potomac and Double-A Harrisburg...Opened the season with Potomac...Selected to the Carolina League's mid-season All-Star team but was unable to participate after he was promoted to Harrisburg on July 1...Tossed a 3-hit shutout on July 19 vs. Trenton...Earned EL Pitcher of the Week honors for July 18-24 following his efforts against Trenton...Was named the seventh-best prospect in both the Carolina League and Rangers organization by Baseball America following the season.

2004: Finished third on the Single-A Savannah pitching staff with 19 games started...Tied for fifth in the South Atlantic League with 2 complete games.

2003: Limited to 5 starts during an injury rehab assignment with the Gulf Coast League Expos as he continued his recovery from Tommy John surgery...Went 1-1 with a 1.80 ERA (15.0IP, 3ER) in those contests.

2002: Made just two starts for the Gulf Coast League Expos before missing the remainder of the season with right elbow inflammation and soreness.

2001: Pitched primarily in relief for the Gulf Coast League Expos...Tied for fourth on the pitching staff with 14 appearances.

2000: Assigned to the Venezuelan Summer League Expos for the second straight season...Converted his first professional save after making 14 appearances (9 starts).

2011 HIGHLIGHTS

- Tossed at least 170.0 innings for his third straight season...the 170.1 innings this season came in 27 starts for the Rockies...Has 87 starts over the last three seasons as a member of the Rockies
- The .270 (175-for-658) opponent batting average this season is his career-low, topping the .272 average he allowed in 2008 with Tampa Bay...Despite the low average, his .342 OBP and .435 SLG against were both the highest since 2008
- With a 7-13 record overall, he set a career-high for losses and his 7 wins were the fewest in his Rockies career
- Began the season making 25 consecutive starts before being moved to the bullpen in the middle of August...Hammel would finish the season making two starts in seven appearances over the final month and a half of the 2011 season
- Was supported by just 13 runs in the month of May, leading to his 0-4 record in the six starts he made...He lasted at least 6.0 innings in all but one of his starts in the month and struck out at least five in three of his six starts in May
- Had his best month in September and was arguably one of the Rockies best pitchers in the month when he allowed just five runs, four earned over 20.0 innings and held hitters to a .174 average
- Tossed his 14th quality start of the season in his final start, 9/24 at HOU, when he allowed two runs over 7.0 innings in the no-decision
- Has 43 quality outings in his 87 starts as a member of the Rockies
- Is the only Rockie to have at least 14 quality starts in each of the last three seasons
- Tossed at least 6.0 innings in 18 of his 27 starts this season, adding to his career total of 55 outings of at least 6.0 innings in his 87 starts in Purple Pinstripes
- In his three seasons as a Rockie, Hammel is 21-13 with a 3.26 ERA (367.1 IP, 133 ER) in the 55 outings where he has gone at least 6.0 innings
- Went 5-8 with a 4.23 (110.2 IP, 52 ER) in 18 pre-ASG starts...The 18 starts prior to the All-Star break mark a career-high
- Earned a save on 9/11 vs. CIN by tossing 4.0 innings and allowing just one run on two hits and striking out four...Was his third career save and his first since 9/28/08 at DET as a member of Tampa Bay

PRO CAREER

2010: Followed up his breakout 2009 season by winning 10 games for the second time in his career...Went 10-9 with a 4.81 ERA (177.2 IP, 95 ER), 47 walks and 141 strikeouts...His 177.2 innings pitched set a new career-high, exactly one inning more than his 176.2 innings he had in 2009...Also set a new career-high with his 141 strikeouts...Averaged a career-high 7.1 strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched in 2010...The 18 home runs he surrendered in 2010 are also a new career-high, one more than his 17 allowed in 2009...Made four starts in April before being placed on the 15-day DL with a strained right groin...Went 0-2, 9.16 (18.2 IP, 19 ER) in those four starts...The Rockies were 0-4 in his four starts...After being reinstated from the DL, 5/15, Hammel went 10-7, 4.30 (159.0 IP, 76 ER) in his 26 starts over the remainder of the season...His 128 strikeouts since his return were second on the Rockies to only Jimenez' 165...His 159.0 innings and 10 wins were also second to Jimenez...Went 4-0, 1.83 (39.1 IP, 8 ER) in six starts during the month of June...The 4 wins and 1.83 ERA were by far his best for any single month in 2010...Went 7-3, 4.08 (90.1 IP, 41 ER) in 15 starts prior to the All-Star break...Following the break, he went 3-6, 5.56 (87.1 IP, 54 ER) in 15 starts...

HISTORY

had a career-high 28.1-inning scoreless streak from 6/1-24...The streak was the third longest in the National League in 2010, and the second-longest by a Rockies starting pitcher in franchise history (Jimenez 33.0 innings, 5/15-6/6/10)...The streak spanned a total of five starts (Rockies went 4-1)...Had a career-high 6-game win-streak ended with a loss 7/16 at CIN...The streak dated back to his win 5/27 vs. Arizona...Had three no-decisions over the stretch and had a 2.17 ERA (58.0 IP, 14 ER) while walking 15 and striking out 46...The Rockies went 8-1 over his winning-streak...Set a career-high with 10 strikeouts 7/16 at CIN...despite getting the loss he bettered his previous high by two strikeouts...Tied his career-high at the time (5/27 vs. ARI and 7/4 vs. SF) and set his career-high for strikeouts.

2009: In first season with Rockies, Hammel ranked fourth on the club in innings pitched (176.2) and third in strikeouts (133)...His 3.17 strikeouts per walk ratio was the best mark on the club...Issued team-low (among starters) 2.14 walks per 9.0 innings pitched...Rox won 17 of his 25 starts after 5/24, including his career-long 5-game winning streak from 5/24-6/26...Went 7-5, 3.13 in 18 games/15 starts on the road; his road ERA was the ninth-lowest mark in the NL...Struggled at home to begin the season, but his Coors numbers got better as the season went on; Rox won 10 of his final 12 starts at Coors Field...Went 3-0 in 3 Interleague starts (at DET, vs. SEA, at OAK)...Allowed 10.34 hits per 9.0 innings pitched, the fifth-highest mark in the NL...Logged an opponent batting average of .228 (34-for-149) in September...Allowed 58 of his 90 runs (64.4 pct.) from innings 1-3 as a starter; only 32 runs scored off Hammel from innings 4 through the end of the game...Allowed the most unearned runs on the Rox staff in '09...averaged just 88.1 pitches per start, including 15.6 pitches per inning, the second-best mark by a starter on the club (Marquis-15.0 pitches per inning)...Competed for the Rays final rotation spot during 2009 Spring Training; went 0-1, 3.96 (25.0 ip, 11 er) with 18 strikeouts in 7 games/4 starts during Grapefruit League play...was acquired by the Rockies from the Rays in exchange for Minor League right-handed pitcher Aneury Rodriguez on 4/5 (day before Opening Day)...Made Rox debut 4/11 vs. PHI with 2.2 IP...Pitched 2.0-plus innings in each of his first 3 outings with the Rox, all as a reliever (6.2 ip, 2 er)...Started in place of LHP Franklin Morales (15-day DL; left shoulder strain) on 4/27 vs. SD; was spotted a 6-4 lead but took a no-decision in his first Rox start...was winless in his first 5 starts (4/27-5/19), going 0-3, 5.11 (24.2 IP, 14 ER); 3 of those starts were at Coors Field...Earned his first victory in a Rockies uniform by allowing just one run in 6.0 innings 5/24 at DET...Took a no-decision in his next start, 5/30 vs. SD, but won his next 3 consecutive starting assignments (6/4-14); Hammel earned the first and last wins of the Rockies' club-record tying 11-game win streak from 6/4-14...Earned his fourth straight win in a rain shortened start 6/14 vs. SEA...Finished 4-0, 3.41 ERA in June, the only NL pitcher to have at least 4 wins with no losses in that month...Had a personal 5-decision winning streak from 5/24-6/26; during the streak had a 3.92 ERA (41.1 ip, 18 er) with 31 strikeouts and just 10 walks...His win streak ended the same day he tossed his first career complete game, 7/1 at LAD (8.0 ip)...that start came a day after Jason Marquis tossed a complete game at LAD; Hammel and Jason Marquis became the first Rox teammates to toss back-to-back complete games since Jeff Francis (7/24/06 vs. STL) and Jason Jennings (7/25/06 vs. STL) did so in 2006...Hammel and Marquis needed a combined total of 189 pitches for their complete games (Hammel-103; Marquis-86)...Went winless in July (6 starts), posting a 5.76 ERA (highest mark for any month in '09)...Tossed his first quality start at Coors Field (9th start at home) on 7/24 vs. SF...Snapped a 6-start winless streak 8/4 at PHI as the Rox won their only game of the series; tied career high with 8 K's in 7.1 innings 9/9 vs. CIN...Earned 10th win of the season in his last start on 9/30 vs. MIL...Made fourth relief appearance of season 10/4 at LAD, tossing 2.0 scoreless frames...Tossed at least 6.0 innings in 5 of his last 6 starts...Allowed 3 earned or less 10 of his last 12 starts...Made his postseason debut with the Rockies in the 2009 NLDS vs. PHI...Started Game 3 at Coors Field (was scheduled to face Pedro Martinez the day before, but the game was postponed due to snow)...Hammel allowed 4 runs in 3.2 innings but did not factor in the decision.

2008: Spent first full season in the Majors at age 25...Opened the year as the No. 5 man in the Rays rotation and made 5 starts in April, but moved to the bullpen for the rest of the season with Scott Kazmir's return from the DL on 5/4...Made 3 consecutive quality starts from 4/12-23...9 of his 35 relief outings lasted 2.0 innings or longer, including four 3.0-inning appearances...Defeated Toronto 4/23 at the Disney Sports Complex in Orlando; marked the first time in his career he won 2 straight starts, 2 straight apps or 2 straight decisions; while he had allowed just one home run in 19.0 innings entering the game, all 3 runs scored on home runs...Rays improved to 4-0 all-time in games vs. TOR started by Hammel...Earned first career save 9/10 at BOS; was 8th pitcher used by the Rays in the game...Recorded his second save on the season's final day, 9/28 at DET; worked a perfect 11th with a strikeout...Was the eighth Rays pitcher in the game...On 9/4 vs. NYY, allowed 5 runs in the 9th inning, including back-to-back homers by Derek Jeter and Alex Rodriguez; it was Rodriguez's 550th career homer and his 20th as a Yankee, passing Jeter (204) and tying Dave Winfield and Jason Giambi (205) for 10th place on the club's all-time list...Was not included on the Rays postseason rosters in 2008, when Tampa Bay advanced to the World Series.

2007: Rookie was recalled from Triple-A Durham on 6/11 and joined the Rays rotation in July where he remained the rest of the season, making 13 starts...Pitched a combined 161.1 innings between the Rays and Durham...Led the Major League staff with 33.0 innings pitched in September; was 2-1 for the month in 6 starts with a 4.09 ERA (33.0 ip, 15 er)...Rays were 5-2 in his final 7 starts...Was winless in his first 18 Major League starts (was 0-6 in 9 starts in 2006 and 0-4 in 9 starts in 2007), the longest such stretch to start a career since Oakland's Mike Mohler was winless in all 20 of his career starts from 1993 to 1997...Beat Andy Pettitte at Yankee Stadium, 8-2, on 9/2 (his 25th birthday) for his first win as a starter; Pettitte had won 12 straight vs. TB and had a 13-1 career mark against the Rays...Earned his second win as a starter on the last day of the season when he won at TOR on 9/30...In his first appearance after recall from Durham, he threw 6.2 innings in relief vs. SD and fanned 8 batters, tying the club record for most strikeouts by a reliever...In his second appearance he worked 2.1 perfect innings and earned his first MLB win at Arizona on 6/18; also doubled off Livan Hernandez in his first plate appearance and drove in a run.

2006: Made two tours with the Rays in 2006...Was recalled in April when LHP Mark Hendrickson went on the disabled list and was 0-1 (10.80 ERA) in 2 starts...Was recalled again on 8/23, when RHP Jae Seo was placed on the DL, and went 0-5 (7.07)...

tossed 6.0 innings 9/6 vs. MIN, left trailing 1-0, but the Rays rallied for a 4-2 win snapping a club record 14-game losing streak to the Twins...On 7/16 against Columbus he combined with Juan Salas for the first-ever no-hitter in Bulls Triple-A history and just the second ever at Durham Bulls Athletic Park...Tossed 8.1 innings in the Bulls' 4-1 win; retired his first batter faced in the 9th before a hit batter and a pair of errors put runners on the corners...Fanned 13 batters 8/16 at Toledo setting a Durham Triple-A record; was one shy of his career-high with Bakersfield in 2004...Only Scranton's Cole Hamels struck out more batters (14) in a game in the International League that season.

2005: The 23-year-old was named the 2005 Rays Minor League Pitcher of the Year after combining to go 11-4 with a 3.24 ERA in 22 games at Double-A Montgomery and Triple-A Durham...His 11 wins and 124 strikeouts were both second-most among Rays minor leaguers...Began the year on the disabled list, recovering from a broken right forearm suffered during the offseason...Made his Double-A debut 5/11 with Montgomery upon his return from the DL...Led the Biscuits in wins and complete games (3) and led all Biscuits starters in ERA and opponent average (.235)...Tabbed as a Southern League midseason All-Star (did not play)...Tossed 3 complete games, one of just three pitchers in the SL to accomplish the feat...The CG on 7/4 was the first of the 9-inning variety in Montgomery history...At the time of his promotion to Durham on 7/16, he ranked second in the Southern League in ERA and was tied for third in wins.

2004: Named 2004 Single-A Bakersfield Pitcher of the Year...Led all Rays minor leaguers with 156 strikeouts and a 2.64 ERA combined between Single-A Charleston and Bakersfield...Was the ninth-lowest ERA ever by a Rays minor leaguer.

2003: Spent the year with Charleston before his season was cut short with a broken wrist on 7/24...Made 4 starts (3-0, 1.92 ERA) when he landed on the DL on 4/30 with a right elbow strain...Returned 5/15...was 3-2 over his next 8 starts with a 3.86 ERA (IP-49.0, ER-21) when his season ended due to a fractured scaphoid bone in his right wrist...Allowed 2 home runs 6/13 at Asheville; the first homer allowed in his professional career (97.1 innings prior without allowing a homer).

2002: Split time with Rookie Level Princeton and Single-A Hudson Valley in 2002 in his first professional season.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall-of-Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 on his way to deliver food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the National Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Carlos Delgado, John Smoltz, Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken Jr.

In 2011, Adam Jones was the Orioles nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award. Jones has been very active in the Baltimore community since he joined the Orioles in 2008, focusing on making a positive impact on underprivileged youth in Baltimore City. Jones has made numerous appearances at Boys and Girls Clubs, the Y of Central Maryland and Baltimore City Title I schools. He has also taken a strong interest in working with players in Baltimore's Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) program, hosting a clinic at which players from RBI and other Baltimore City baseball leagues received baseball instruction from Jones. He also frequently visits RBI games on Orioles off-days.

Jones's other community activities include a partnership with BARCS (Baltimore Animal and Rescue Care Shelter), in which he posed for the OriolesREACH pet calendar and teamed up with BARCS for an ad campaign designed to bring awareness to animal cruelty in the inner city. Jones also participated in the MLBPA Buses for Baseball Program, where children from the "Cool Kids Campaign" (an organization whose mission is to provide a higher quality of life for children with cancer) were treated to a full gameday experience.

In addition to his appearances, Jones also contributes $5,000 a year to the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience, a program that gives underprivileged children the opportunity to come to Oriole Park for a game, hat, t-shirt and concessions.

PRO CAREER

2010: Reached the 30-homer plateau for the second time in his career and established a career-high with 83 walks while battling a thumb injury near the end of the season to post a .198 (99-for-499) average with 17 doubles, 2 triples, 32 homers and 85 RBI... Led the Majors in strikeouts for the third straight season with 211... Became the first non-pitcher in baseball history to have a higher strikeout total (211) than batting average (.198)... Twins' pitcher Dean Chance was the last to accomplish the feat when he struck out 63 times with an .054 average in 1968... Matched career-high with a .951 fielding percentage and finished with the second-fewest errors (18) of his career... His 32 homers tied for the 9th-most in D-backs history... Finished the season among all-time franchise leaders ranked third in home runs (121) and slugging percentage (.483), fourth in RBI (346), fifth in walks (260), sixth in stolen bases (42), seventh in extra-base hits (226), eighth in runs (326) and 10th in games (563) and at-bats (1,982)... Named the NL Player of the Week, April 19-25, for the third time in his career after batting .421 (8-for-19) with 2 doubles, 3 homers and a Major League-best 11 RBI... Became the 8th D-backs player (16th time overall) to hit a home run into Friday's Front Row with an estimated 452-foot blast on April 10 vs. Pirates... Had a pair of 4 RBI games, April 25 vs. PHI and July 19 vs. NYM... Snapped a 34-at-bat homerless drought with a home run off Tim Lincecum on May 20 vs. SF to give him 100 homers in his Major League career, second fastest D'back in history (458 games) to reach the century mark, trailing only Luis Gonzalez (424 games)... Also became the fourth-fastest third baseman in Major League history to reach 100 homers in the least amount of games... Bob Horner was the fastest in 390 games, followed by Eddie Mathews (397 games) and Troy Glaus (456 games)... Collected his 300th career RBI with a 3-run homer in the ninth inning on May 26 @ COL... Posted his 700th career strikeout in his 516th game on July 31 @ NYM to become the fastest player in Major League to reach that mark... On Aug. 3 vs. WAS, hit a 3-run homer in the fourth inning but was pulled in the sixth after being hit in the head by a pitch from Collin Balester... Started the next day but was removed in the seventh inning... Missed the next 3 games with related symptoms before returning to action on Aug. 8 vs. SD... On Aug. 11 @ MIL, hit the third of four consecutive homers to tie the Major League record for the seventh time... His homer was preceded by Adam LaRoche and Miguel Montero and followed by Stephen Drew... Matched his career-high with 5 RBI on Aug. 30 vs. SD with a pair of 2-run homers and an RBI single... Batted only .078 (5-for-64) with 2 RBI while nursing a jammed right thumb by playing in 21 of the club's final 29 games of the season after Sept. 1.

2009: Established himself as one of the premier power hitters in the Majors and set career marks with 155 games, 578 at-bats, 98 runs scored, 150 hits, 30 doubles, 44 home runs, 102 RBI, 76 walks and a .543 slugging percentage while posting a career high-tying .349 on-base percentage... Received an eighth-place, ninth-place and 10th-place vote in the NL MVP voting to finish 20th... In club history, his 44 home runs were the second-most in a single season while his 89 career round trippers rank fifth... his 25 home runs on the road were the second-highest single-season total behind Luis Gonzalez's 31 road homers in 2001 while his 19 blasts at home tied for the fourth-most in team history with Tony Clark (2005) and Reggie Sanders (2001) behind Gonzalez (26 in 2001), Jay Bell (21 in 1999) and Troy Glaus (20 in 2005)... He is the ninth player since 1954 to post at least a .260 average, 44 home runs, 102 RBI and 24 stolen bases in a season, joining Hank Aaron (Milwaukee Braves in 1963), Ken Griffey Jr. (Mariners in 1999), Barry Bonds (Giants in 1993), Alex Rodriguez (Yankees in 2007), Chipper Jones (Braves in 1999), Jose Canseco (Athletics in 1991), Larry Walker (Rockies in 1997) and Willie Mays (New York Giants in 1955)... He is the 11th player since 1954 with at least 44 home runs and 24 stolen bases in a season, joining Hank Aaron (Milwaukee Braves in 1963), Ken Griffey Jr. (Mariners in 1999), Barry Bonds (Giants in 1993), Alfonso Soriano (Nationals in 2006), Alex Rodriguez (Yankees in 2007), Chipper Jones (Braves in 1999), Jose Canseco (Athletics in 1991), Blue Jays in 1998, Larry Walker (Rockies in 1997) and Willie Mays (New York Giants in 1955)... He is the eighth third baseman since 1954 to hit at least .260 with 44 home runs and 102 RBI, joining Vinny Castilla (Rockies in 1998), Troy Glaus (Anaheim in 2000), Chipper Jones (Atlanta in 1999), Eddie Mathews (Milwaukee Braves in 1953 and 1959), Adrian Beltre (Los Angeles-NL in 2004) and Mike Schmidt (Phillies in 1980)... His 44 home runs and 24 stolen bases equated to a 31.1 Power Speed Number, tops in the Majors... Is the fourth player since 2000 with 40-plus homers and 20-plus steals in a season, joining Alex Rodriguez (2005 with 48 HR, 21 SB; 2007 with 54 HR, 24 SB), Shawn Green (2001 with 49 HR, 20 SB) and Alfonso Soriano (2006 with 46 HR, 41 SB)... His 223 strikeouts set a new Major League record, breaking his previous high of 204 strikeouts from 2008... he also committed 24 errors, second-most in the Majors... Became third player in franchise history to lead team in home runs and stolen bases, joining Devon White, who hit 22 home runs and had 22 stolen bases in 1998, and Eric Byrnes, who accomplished the feat in 2006 with 26 homers and 25 stolen bases... In club history, his 102 RBI and 24 stolen bases ranked as the ninth-most in a single season... From the seventh inning on, led the Majors with 18 home runs and a .636 slugging percentage... over the first six frames, hit 26 home runs (tied for 10th in the Majors) with a .500 slugging percentage... Finished second in ESPN's "Baseball Tonight" Web Gems rankings behind the Nationals' Ryan Zimmerman... Reynolds had 13 Web Gems and led all players with six Web Gems that were rated No. 1... Stole

2011 IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW-ORIOLES IN 2011

AWARD WINNERS: Adam Jones was named Most Valuable Oriole by the local media after establishing career-highs with 151 games played, 26 doubles, 25 homers and 83 RBI... Jones led the team with a career-high 16 outfield assists and finished tied for second in the majors in outfield assists...The 16 outfield assists are tied for the fifth-most in a single season in Orioles history...Matt Wieters was named to the 2011 American League All-Star team... Wieters set career-highs with 28 doubles, 22 homers and 68 RBI, while throwing out 32 runners attempting to steal...His 58 stolen bases allowed were the fewest among AL catchers with 100 or more games started...He was the first Oriole catcher to be named to the All-Star team since Mickey Tettleton in 1989...J.J. Hardy was named AL Player of the Week for the week ending August 14 as he batted .323 (10-31) with two doubles, four homers and 10 RBI in the seven games...Nick Markakis won AL Player of the Week honors for the week ending July 17 as he batted .429 (6-14) with two doubles, two homers, four RBI and five runs scored.

GOLD RUSH: Nick Markakis and Matt Wieters claimed their first career Rawlings Gold Glove Awards for defensive excellence...Wieters posted a .995 fielding percentage to tie for the American League lead among catchers and became the first Orioles catcher to win a Gold Glove Award...Markakis completed the first error-free season of 150 or more games played by an Orioles outfielder in franchise history and finished fifth in the American League with 14 outfield assists...The duo became the 14th and 15th Orioles overall to win a Gold Glove...2011 was the 17th season the Orioles have had multiple Gold Glove winners in the same season, and the first time since 2B Roberto Alomar, P Mike Mussina and 1B Rafael Palmeiro each claimed a Gold Glove Award in 1998.

GREAT START: The Orioles opened the season 4-0, holding their opponents to one run in each game, which according to Elias, tied the major league record of four consecutive wins to start a season while allowing no more than one run in each game, previously set by the 1915 Phillies, 1991 White Sox and 2007 Mets...The Orioles allowed fewer than two runs and fewer than five hits in three straight games (April 1-3) for the first time since June 6-8, 1979...That streak is only the third time in modern baseball history that a team has allowed exactly one run on exactly four hits in three straight games of any season, joining the 1996 Cardinals and 1958 Indians.

GREAT FINISH: The Orioles' final 17 games of the season were against playoff clinching or playoff-contending clubs and the O's went 11-6 (5-2 against Boston, 2-1 against Tampa Bay, 2-1 against Los Angeles and 2-2 against Detroit) during that stretch...15 of the last 23 games were decided by two or fewer runs...The Orioles were 10-5 in those games...Ten of the 15 were decided by one run, with the O's going 6-4 in those games...The season was capped off with a ninth inning, come-from-behind win over Boston on September 28...Entering the final game, the Red Sox were 77-0 when leading after eight innings and the Orioles were 1-85 when trailing after eight innings.

GOLD GLOVE WORTHY: Nick Markakis played 157 errorless games in right field to become just the fifth Orioles outfielder to play 100 or more games in a season without making an error, joining John Lowenstein (111 games in 1982), Jay Payton (108 games in 2008), Gary Roenicke (113 games in 1980) and B.J. Surhoff (148 games in 1999).

CAREER YEARS: Adam Jones set career-highs with 151 games played, 26 doubles, 25 homers and 83 RBI...Robert Andino set career-highs with 139 games played, 120 hits, 22 doubles, five homers and 36 RBI...J.J. Hardy set a career-high with 30 homers and tied his career-high with 80 RBI...Matt Wieters set career-highs with 28 doubles, 22 homers and 68 RBI...Nolan Reimold tied his career-high with 45 RBI.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The O's finished the year 7-11 in Interleague Play and are 115-149 all-time in Interleague Play...The Birds are 64-69 against the NL at Camden Yards in Interleague Play and 51-80 on the road...Orioles pitchers went 9-for-22 (.409) at the plate during Interleague Play this year, which according to Elias, set American League single-season records for most hits and highest batting average by pitchers in interleague games...Zach Britton, who had hits in each of his three starts in National League ballparks this year, finished Interleague Play with five hits in eight at-bats, the most hits in one season for any American League pitcher during the designated-hitter era (courtesy Elias).

THE BOMB SQUAD: The Orioles hit 191 home runs in 2011, the seventh most in club history and fourth in the majors...The Birds hit 58 more home runs in 2011 than in 2010 (133)...The O's hit their 133rd homer of 2011 on August 10...The Orioles had four players with 20 or more home runs (Hardy, Jones, Reynolds and Wieters)...Only the Rangers (five), Yankees and Red Sox (four) had four or more 20+ homer players...The 2011 Orioles are the 11th team in franchise history to have four or more players with 20 or more homers...The 1996 team had seven players with 20+ homers, the 2008 team had five, while the '66, '69, '78, '82, '85, '87, '99 and '04 teams had four each.

THE HIT MAN: Nick Markakis recorded his 30th double on September 26, making him the eighth player in baseball to record 30 or more doubles in each of the last five seasons...Markakis recorded 182 hits this year, marking the fifth time he has recorded 180 or more, the most seasons of 180+ hits in franchise history...Markakis became the sixth Oriole to have five or more seasons with 150 or more hits, joining Ripken (15), Eddie Murray (11) Brooks Robinson (11), Brian Roberts (6) and Ken Singleton (5)...Markakis' homer off Mark Buehrle August 11 was the 100th of his career...Markakis recorded his 1,000th career hit on July 15 to become the 14th player to record 1,000 or more hits for the Orioles.

DOMINICAN DANDY: Vladimir Guerrero's single off Josh Beckett on September 26 made him the all-time leader in hits by a Dominican-born player...Guerrero (2,590 hits in 16 seasons) passed Julio Franco (2,586 hits in 23 seasons)...Guerrero's next home run (#450) will make him the 35th player in major league history to hit 450 home runs...The only Dominican-born players with more homers are Sammy Sosa (609) and Manny Ramirez (555)...Guerrero's double on June 14 was the 2,500th hit of his major league career and he became the 94th player in major league history to reach that mark (seventh active player).

FRESH FACES: Six Orioles made their major league debuts in 2011 (Adams, Angle, Britton, B. Davis, Hudson and Phillips)...Twenty-two players made their Orioles debuts in 2011 (Accardo, Adams, Angle, Atkins, Britton, B. Davis, C. Davis, Eyre, Gregg, Guerrero, Hardy, Hudson, Hunter, Jakubauskas, Lee, Phillips, Rapada, Reyes, Reynolds, Rupe, Strop and Worrell)...907 players have worn an Orioles uniform all-time.

THE WORKHORSE: Jeremy Guthrie became the 11th pitcher in Orioles history to start 30 or more games in four separate seasons...Guthrie reached 1,000 innings in his career during his September 9 start at Toronto...He became the 1,150th pitcher in MLB history and the 72nd active pitcher to reach 1,000 innings...Guthrie tied his career-high with 17 losses (also 2009) to become the first pitcher since Kip Wells (2005 and 2007) to lose 17 or more games twice in his career.

DYNAMIC DUO: J.J. Hardy (30) and Mark Reynolds (37) gave the Orioles two players with 30 or more homers in the same season for the fifth time in franchise history, joining Frank Robinson (49) and Boog Powell (34) in 1966, Robinson (32) and Powell (37) in 1969, Larry Sheets (31) and Eddie Murray (30) in 1987, and Brady Anderson (50) and Rafael Palmeiro (39) in 1996...Hardy's 30 homers were the third-most by a shortstop in Orioles history behind Cal Ripken Jr.'s 34 in 1991 and Miguel Tejada's 34 in 2004...The Orioles were the only MLB team to have 20 or more home runs by their shortstop and third baseman...Mark Reynolds (24 at third base), J.J. Hardy (30) combined for 54 homers, 10 fewer than the total of the Orioles' left side in the last three years combined.

AVERAGE LEADER: Vladimir Guerrero batted .358 (34-95) with eight doubles and two home runs in his last 23 games, with multi-hit efforts in 11 of those contests to raise his average to a team-leading .290...He had hit .300 or better in 13 of his last 14 major league seasons (hit .295 for the Angels in 2009) before finishing at .290 in 2011...Guerrero's .318 career average trails only Albert Pujols (.328), Ichiro Suzuki (.326), Joe Mauer (.323) and Todd Helton (.323) among active players.

EATING HIS WIET-IES: Matt Wieters hit 20 homers in 800 at-bats during the 2009-10 seasons and hit 22 in 500 at-bats in 2011...Wieters hit 20 of his 22 homers as a catcher to become the fourth O's catcher to hit 20 or more, joining: Chris Hoiles (29 in '93; 25 in '96 and 20 in '92), Ramon Hernandez (23 in '06) and Charles Johnson (21 in '00).

HARDY'S HEROICS: J.J. Hardy hit a career-high 30 home runs (previous career-high was 26 with Milwaukee in 2007)...Hardy's 30 homers were the most home runs by an AL East shortstop since Miguel Tejada hit 34 for the O's in 2004...Hardy hit three more home runs in 2011 than the Orioles' shortstops hit the four previous years combined...He tied Troy Tulowitzki for the most home runs by a shortstop in the majors despite playing in 11 fewer games than Tulowitzki...Hardy led AL shortstops with a .990 fielding percentage.

BULLPEN BULLIES: Jim Johnson allowed a run in just three of his last 20 outings, posting a 1.71 ERA (26.1IP, 13H, 5ER) over the span and picking up a save in seven of his last 11 outings...Pedro Strop allowed just one run on eight hits in 12.1 innings in his first 11 appearances for the O's.

GREEN LIGHT: The Orioles were successful on 32 of their last 38 stolen base attempts (since August 26)...Eight different Orioles recorded a stolen base in that span...For the year, the Orioles stole 81 bases in 106 attempts, with Robert Andino's 13 steals leading the club.

TOUGH ON LEFTIES: Pedro Strop (2-for-19), Zach Phillips (2-for-20) and Clay Rapada (5-for-48) held left-handed batters to a .103 batting average (9-for-87) this year...Over his last 17 games (since July 22), LH Troy Patton pitched to a 2.42 ERA (26.0IP, 7ER), striking out 17 while walking three...Over the last two seasons, Rapada has held left-handed batters to the lowest average in baseball (min. 60 AB) at .090 (6-67).

STREAK SNAPPED: Nick Markakis had his streak of hitting safely in 182 consecutive series snapped by the Blue Jays August 30-September 1...The streak was the longest in the majors and was the longest since Juan Pierre hit in 241 consecutive series from 2003-2007...Before the Toronto series, the last time Markakis went an entire series without a hit was May 23-25, 2008, when Tampa Bay held him hitless in a three-game set (Markakis only played in two of the games).

MARK THE MASHER: Mark Reynolds hit 37 home runs, the most by an Oriole since Aubrey Huff hit 32 in 2008...The 37 homers put him in a three-way tie for the ninth-most in a single season in Orioles history (since 1954)...Reynolds is the third player to hit 37 or more homers in his first season with the O's, joining Albert Belle (37 in 1999) and Frank Robinson (49 in 1966)...Reynolds has hit 28 or more in each of the last four seasons and has hit 30 or more in each of his last three seasons...Since the start of the 2009 season, only Albert Pujols (126) and Prince Fielder (116) have hit more home runs than Reynolds' 113...On August 25 against Toronto's Ricky Romero, Reynolds hit just the second ball to ever land in the club level in leftfield at Camden Yards, joining California's Rex Hudler, who hit a home run off Jamie Moyer down the leftfield line on June 11, 1995 that landed in the club level...The 450-foot homer was the second longest by an Oriole at Camden Yards, behind Jeffrey Hammonds' 460-foot shot on September 15, 1997 off Cleveland's Erik Plunk...It tied for the sixth longest home run ever at Camden Yards...Reynolds' 26 errors at the hot corner broke Brooks Robinson's Orioles record for most errors by a third baseman (22 in 1958).

HIT MEN: With his two-run double September 25, Pedro Florimon became the eighth Oriole to record his first MLB hit in 2011, joining Ryan Adams, Matt Angle, Jake Arrieta, Zach Britton, Blake Davis, Kyle Hudson and Chris Jakubauskas...According to Elias, only the Padres and Rockies (nine each) had more players record their first hit in 2011 (the Dodgers and Mariners also had eight)...The last time the O's had as many as eight players get their first hit in one season was 2005...The franchise record is 10, set in 1955.

THE RIFLEMEN: The O's were third in the AL with 36 outfield assists, behind Kansas City (51) and Detroit (37)...Adam Jones led the team and tied for second in baseball with 16, while Nick Markakis posted 14 (fifth in the majors)...The O's doubled four runners off first base, threw out 14 at second base, three at third base, 14 at home plate and had a ball deflected by Jones that was caught by Markakis...Nolan Reimold had five assists and Felix Pie had one.

A ROUGH TWO MONTHS: The O's went 30-31 with nine series wins over their first 61 games through June 10, over which their pitchers posted a 4.17 ERA...The Birds were 17-46 from June 11 through August 21, winning just one series in that span and pitching to a 5.68 ERA...After August 21, the Birds went 22-16, with seven series wins and a 4.79 team ERA (340.0IP, 181ER).

STRANGE YEAR: Jeremy Accardo allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2011: September 19 at Boston (Jacoby Ellsbury) and June 12 against Tampa Bay (Evan Longoria)...According to Elias, Pat Hentgen is the last Oriole pitcher to allow two in the same year (2003).

IN A PINCH: The Orioles led the majors in batting average as pinch hitters at .298 (17-57).

YOU COMPLETE ME: Jeremy Guthrie (May 13) and Brad Bergesen (May 14) threw the first back-to-back complete games for the Birds since Sidney Ponson (9.0IP @SEA) and Rodrigo Lopez (8.0IP @OAK) accomplished the feat July 10-11, 2003...Zach Britton pitched 9.0 innings on May 12, but the game lasted 12 innings.

PITCHING ISSUES: Orioles starting pitchers allowed five or more runs 56 times this season, which led the majors by five over Houston and Minnesota...The Orioles made 60 Quality Starts, the fewest in the majors and 11 fewer than Boston and Colorado who tied for the second fewest (71).

LAUNCHING PAD: In 81 games at Camden Yards, there were 214 home runs (2.67 per game)...Only Rangers Ballpark played host to more longballs (228 81 games, 2.81 per game)...The 214 homers at Camden Yards were the second-most in stadium history, behind the 229 in 1996...Robert Andino's inside-the-park homer September 26 against Boston was the first by an Oriole at Camden Yards...Tampa Bay's Brandon Guyer became the first player to hit a home run in his first major league at-bat at Camden Yards on May 6.

EUTAW STREET: After not having a home run land on Eutaw Street in 2010, five home runs landed on Eutaw Street in 2011 as Nick Swisher, Lance Berkman, Carlos Santana and Luke Scott (twice) homered onto the famous street...There have now been 57 home runs that have landed on Eutaw Street (33 by opponents and 24 by Orioles batters)...Scott has hit the last four (and six of the last seven) Eutaw Street homers by an Oriole...His six Eutaw Street homers are the most by one player in stadium history.

A photograph of Justin Verlander, a professional baseball pitcher, in a Detroit Tigers uniform. He is wearing a grey home jersey with "Detroit" in red script and the number "35" in red with black outline. He is also wearing a navy blue cap with the red "D" logo. He is in a pitching motion, with his left hand in a black Rawlings baseball glove. The background is a blurred stadium crowd.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect...Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, Texas-1.

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

The Baltimore Orioles Designated Hitters were established in the fall of 1979 as a volunteer sales force and designed primarily to keep baseball in Baltimore by increasing season ticket sales. The Designated Hitters (DHs) became an instrumental part of the Orioles' organizational drive to put fans in the stands. Today, DHs work within the regional corporate community as well as small businesses, non-profit organizations, schools, local government and individual customers to sell them on the Orioles. The DH staff members participate out of passion for their hometown team and represent the Orioles as a strong volunteer sales support staff dedicated to the continuing success of the Orioles' organization. For more information about the DHs, call 410-547-6071 or e-mail dh@orioles.com.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are celebrating their 50th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball". Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in 1963 and administered it for 25 years. Membership rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

RUSO AWARD PRESENTED

Northeast Regional Crosschecker DEAN ALBANY was presented the Jim Russo Scout of the Year Award, named in honor of the man who spent 33 years in various scouting capacities with the Orioles beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. Albany completed his 12th season as a scout and three of his signed selections (Steven Bumbry, Mike Flacco and Glynn Davis) contributed to the Frederick Keys' championship season. He also signed 10 players from the 2008 draft, including third rounder LJ Hoes and fifth rounder Greg Miclat. In addition to his scouting coverage, Albany supervises Youse's Maryland Orioles, the 20-year old and under college scout team for the Orioles.

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2012 First Year Player Draft will be held June 4-6. The Orioles will have the 4th pick in the first round of the draft. The First Year Player Draft began in 1965. The first player chosen in that first draft to reach the major leagues with the Orioles was sixth round selection Bill Dillman, a RHP from Wake Forest University. The most dazzling 1-2 picks in Orioles history came out of the 1967 draft when the Birds selected Bobby Grich No. 1 and Don Baylor No. 2. The Orioles selected a record four players in the first round of the 1999 draft as compensation for free agents lost the previous year.

DID YOU KNOW?

-Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now a coach in the Orioles minor league system, is one of only 18 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th overall pick), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980. In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their careers include Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, Dwight Gooden, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, C.C. Sabathia, Rick Sutcliffe, Adam Wainwright, Bob Welch and Barry Zito.

-Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the fifth inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

-Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, to become the only reliever to fan more than nine batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddox has the Orioles' regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.

-The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured four players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).

-Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did it September 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.

-Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1951.

MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

INF Jonathan Schoop was named the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year after hitting a combined .290 with 13 home runs, 71 RBI and a .781 OPS in 128 games with Single-A Delmarva (51G) and Frederick (77G). The 19-year-old played second base, third base and shortstop this season and was named the Orioles Minor League Player of the Month for August. He was named the Carolina League Player of the Week (August 8-14) and participated in this year's Futures Game in Arizona as the Orioles' representative on the World Team. Signed by the Orioles as a non-drafted free agent in August of 2008, Schoop represented the Netherlands at this year's International Baseball Federation World Cup competition, which was held in Panama.

RHP Tim Lincecum was named the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year after going 10-4 with a 2.97 ERA (136.1IP, 45ER) in 30 games (18 starts) for Class-A Frederick (1G/1GS) and Double-A Bowie (29G/17GS). His 2.97 ERA was the second best in the organization and his 117 strikeouts ranked fourth. Lincecum finished in the top five in the Eastern League in ERA (3.11 – fourth) and WHIP (1.13 – third). The Orioles' fourth round selection in the 2007 First Year Player Draft, Lincecum was also named to the Western Division roster for the EL All-Star Game.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 57 home runs hit onto the Eutaw St. promenade since Camden Yards opened in 1992, 23 of them have been hit by Orioles, including six by Luke Scott, the most by an individual. Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. A single season-high eight homers landed on Eutaw St. in 2008, including Luke Scott's blast on July 19, the only walk-off Eutaw St. HR in park history.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 229-164, in their 58-year history (including post-season)...They have a 132-69 advantage in Baltimore, including a 57-44 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards • THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the fifth time in history one club has hit two grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam • Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987 • TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit two grand slams in the same game and it has been done by an Oriole three times • Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the third and eighth innings • Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats • Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970 • GENTILE HIT 5 IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five bases loaded homers in '61 • The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006 • POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles • Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota) • McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history • OPPONENTS: The 2006 Orioles allowed a major-league leading and club record 12 grand slams • The previous club record was nine allowed in 2000 • The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds • The 1978 O's allowed slams in three straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee • The 1993 O's did it August 10-12, all at Detroit • Edgar Martinez, Alex Rodriguez and Jim Thome are the only players with three grand slams against the O's • 14 players have hit two • Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up two grand slams against the Orioles and the third to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955) • GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler • Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for second highest career grand slams allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10 • Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, and Jesse Orosco are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed four grand slams, including one in post-season play) • Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS: Although they have not had one in the past 27 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 44 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (15), Red Sox (13), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Cardinals (12), Dodgers (11), Twins (10), and Tigers (10) are the only other teams with 10 or more since 1968. From 1968 thru 1980, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from 1903 to 1914, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years. "In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland. "The four Orioles all won their 20th games within six days: Dave McNally was the first on September 21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (September 24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (September 24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (September 26). Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in 1980. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (August 25) and Cuellar (August 27) in 1971 and Palmer (August 20) in 1975. The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 thru 1967), was lefthander Steve Barber in 1963.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 58 seasons.

The most recent triple play, and arguably most bizarre, took place on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland. In the second inning, with Sandy Alomar, Jr. at the plate, Travis Fryman at second base and Wil Cordero at first base, SS Melvin Mora allowed Alomar's short fly to left to bounce in front of him. The Cleveland runners, thinking the infield fly rule had been called, did not run and Alomar headed to the dugout. Mora picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who tagged Fryman and stepped on second to force Cordero. After realizing Alomar had not reached first base, Sidney Ponson flipped the ball to Jeff Conine at first to retire Alomar. After some discussion by the umpires and the ejection of Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their most recent one at home, came August 25, 1992 against California. With Tim Salmon at third and Chad Curtis at first, Gary Gaetti lined to 3B Leo Gomez who stepped on third to retire Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligann to complete the triple play. It is the only triple play turned by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

The Orioles have hit into two triple plays at Oriole Park. The most recent triple play was April 3, 1996 against Kansas City, when DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at third base and Rafael Palmeiro at first, 3B Joe Randa gloved Bonilla's grounder and threw to 2B Bip Roberts to force Palmeiro. As Roberts threw to first to double up Bonilla, Alomar streaked towards the plate and was thrown out by 1B Bob Hamelin, who threw to C Sal Fasano.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league. Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not just on fielding percentage.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 75, Yankees 63, ORIOLES 61, Reds 52, Braves and Phillies 44.5, Pirates 44, Twins 42, Dodgers 40.5, Red Sox 40, Giants, Mariners, White Sox and Tigers 38, Cubs 37, Senators/Rangers and Angels 35, Indians 30, Blue Jays and Expos/Nationals 22, Padres and Astros 21, Athletics 20, Mets 19, Royals 18, Rockies 12, Brewers 9, Marlins 6.5, Diamondbacks 5 and Rays 4

A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Other Oriole multiple winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each), Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich and Mike Mussina (four each), Davey Johnson and Eddie Murray (three each), Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro and Cal Ripken Jr. (two each). Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio 9, Mussina 7 and Palmeiro 3.

ALL-STAR NOTES

In 2011, CA Matt Wieters made his first career All-Star appearance, entering the game defensively in the bottom of the sixth inning and grounding out to second in his only at-bat • In 2009, CF Adam Jones was selected to his first All-Star team • Jones was 0-1 with a sacrifice fly and the game-winning RBI in the game which was held in St. Louis • Jones flew out to the warning track in both plate appearances and at 23 years old, was the third-youngest player with a game-winning RBI in the eighth inning or later of an All-Star Game, behind Ted Williams (1941) and Hank Blalock (2003) each of whom did it at age 22 • Jones was the youngest Oriole to make the AL squad since Mike Mussina (also 23) in 1992 and the youngest O's position player to make the squad since Cal Ripken Jr. (22) in 1983 • Jones was the first Orioles outfielder to appear in the Midsummer Classic since Melvin Mora in 2003. LHP George Sherrill, who had spent all or parts of five years in independent baseball, was named to the 2008 All-Star team and pitched 2.1 scoreless innings in the game which was held in the old Yankee Stadium • After having 28 saves at the break, Sherrill became the first pitcher since 1987 to work more than two innings in an All-Star Game. DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998. They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996. THREE IN A ROW: Shortstop Miguel Tejada was named to his 3rd straight All-Star team in 2006, becoming the 12th player in club history to make the team in at least 3 straight seasons • He joined Cal Ripken (1983-2001), Brooks Robinson (1960-74), Eddie Murray (1981-86), Boog Powell (1968-71), Frank Robinson (1969-72), Gus Triandos (1957-59), Jim Gentile (1960-62), Davey Johnson (1968-70), Jim Palmer (1970-72), Mike Mussina (1992-94) and Roberto Alomar (1996-98). CAL'S FINALE: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field • Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish • It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning • Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto • With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play. ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2005 selections of 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada, 12 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969 • Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote • He was unable to play because of injury in 2000 • Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (1 each). ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors • In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the fourth player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle • He joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only 2-time winners • Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win • Cal became only the 3rd AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65) • In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL • Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors • It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983 • Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win • Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976 • In 2005, Miguel Tejada won MVP honors with a home run, 2 RBI and a hand in 2 double plays to lead the AL to a 7-5 win at Detroit • Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding • He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored • Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in the 1958 All-Star Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium and was named the game's "unofficial" MVP • The official All-Star MVP Award was created in 1962. HOME RUN DERBY: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest • He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991 • Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format. ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the 7th overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game • Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on) • The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on). BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games • The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium • The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game • In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993 • The game drew 48,147 fans • Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3 • Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game • FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration • Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout • Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the only time they've made back-to-back post season appearances since 1973-74 • For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series • In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS • In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both • They are 6-2 overall (.750) • The O's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road. ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4 • They are 21-16 (.568) • The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road • Only the New York Yankees (39 wins), Atlanta Braves (27 wins), Oakland A's (23 wins), and St. Louis Cardinals (22 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play • The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played) • They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year. WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in championship games (19-14) • The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away. POST SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590) • They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the 2nd best post season record of any team • They also have a 2.69 ERA in post season play, the 2nd lowest of any team. ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808) • The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66 (that also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game) • The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, 1993, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases for an inside-the-park home run off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park. It was the first ever hit in the new park and first by a visiting player in Baltimore since August 17, 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit one off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Fenway Park. It was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat June 8, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees. (When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first inside-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.)

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen, who was victimized again September 13 at Toronto by Greg Myers.

On May 22, 2010, at Washington, Adam Jones hit an inside-the-park home run off Craig Stammen as Nyjer Morgan got a glove on the ball keeping it in the park, but thought it went over. Jones circled bases as Morgan reacted in disbelief that he hadn't caught it.

On September 26, 2011, Robert Andino hit the first inside-the-park home run by an Oriole at Camden Yards. Andino's fly ball off Josh Beckett caromed off the glove of Jacoby Ellsbury as he slammed into the centerfield wall.

Orioles pitcher Jeremy Accardo allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2011 as Boston's Jacoby Ellsbury accomplished the feat September 19 in Boston and Tampa Bay's Evan Longoria tagged Accardo June 12 in Baltimore for just the second inside-the-parker by an opponent at Camden Yards.

ORIOLE

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, begin play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Ave. below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to pro and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team makes its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moves to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Ave. and 25th Street) and adopts the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird would be used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams are formed. One, also named the Orioles, plays in the new Union Association; by mid-season they transferred to Lancaster, PA, and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, becomes a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team breaks up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joins the National League. Games are played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th streets.

1894-96 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles win three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finish their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joins the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles play two seasons in Baltimore before relocating to New York as the Highlanders – eventually to become the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joins the Eastern League. They are in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team wins the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles join the International League. They would be part of the league for the next 42 seasons until major league baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), enters the newly formed Federal League. The league would fold after just two seasons. The team plays at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Ave. between 29th and 30th streets; two years later, Jack Dunn buys the ballpark and renames it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager and manager of the International League Orioles, signs 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname is born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, win a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years, 1920-24, future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove leads the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fields two teams in the Negro Leagues – the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, leading the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracting interest from teams in the major leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, play their final season in the International League. After two votes fail, on September 29, American League owners approve the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium – now called Memorial Stadium – Baltimore returns to the major leagues and the Orioles return to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles return to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but go on to a 54-100 season.

November 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swap 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards lays the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles get 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson is signed; he makes his major league debut on September 17 but does not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.

July 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosts its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retires the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

September 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurls the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, Manager Paul Richards will introduce the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

May 9, 1961 – Jim Gentile becomes the first player in major league history to hit grand slams in consecutive at bats in a 13-5 win at Minnesota.

September 18, 1963 – Steve Barber becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California. He is the first of the Orioles' 20-game winners; they have had 23 more over the last 40 years, more than any other team.

June, 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, takes control of the ballclub as majority owner. He will lead the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles go to the postseason six times.

December 9, 1965 – The Orioles make arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completes the trade, which was begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail Jr.

May 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hits the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorate the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

September 22, 1966 – 20-year-old Jim Palmer pitches a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer will win 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe 4 Straight?" The Orioles stun the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson wins the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell finish 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver is added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, is named manager of the Orioles. He goes on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they capture three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earns the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the '70 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles win back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they are beaten by Oakland in the AL Championship Series both years.

June 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, begins to remake the club with a 10-player trade with New York. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGreggor, Tippy Martinez and Rick Dempsey come from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, is among those sent to New York.

September 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium is filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

June 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the 9th caps a monumental comeback against Detroit and gives birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles win the AL pennant for the 5th time and take a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series. But the Pirates' "fam-lee" comes back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

ORIOLES
HISTORY

November 1, 1979 – American League owners approve the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ends both local and public ownership of the club.

August 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken Jr. makes his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record is the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decides to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finish second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

October 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with 4 games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, take the first three games at Memorial Stadium to forge a tie for first. But the Brewers spoil the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced his retirement at the end of the season, is saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lose the first game of the AL Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox three straight games. They lose the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken is named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lose a major league record 21 games to start the season.

May 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles play before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announces that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority have agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

December 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs buys the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who had passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" is the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably lead the AL East into September. They eventually lose at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

October 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ends as the Orioles play their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken Jr. – who would add his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won in mid-season – hits into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit does not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles return in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

April 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushers in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0 on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helps revitalize the neighborhood and earns wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

July 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosts the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

August 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos leads a group of investors – most of whom are Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approve the sale on October 4.

September 6, 1995 – The Iron Man tops the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken Jr. surpasses a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helps beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles draw 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They will go on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

September 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hits his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A major league-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles break New York's 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advance to the playoffs as the "wild card" team, finishing 2nd in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the AL Division Series before the Yankees – with help from 12-year-old Jeffrey Maier – end the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles go wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

September 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken Jr. ends his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor starts in his place at third base.

April 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken Jr. singles at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone. He is one of eight players with 3,000 hits and 400 home runs.

October 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken plays his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career will result in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame with the 3rd highest vote percentage in history.

July 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, begins 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

November 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveil their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2007, Cal Ripken Jr. became the 12th modern Oriole to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and the 6th whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat, joining Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Earl

Weaver. All except Weaver – selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee – were elected in their first year of eligibility. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Ripken received 98.53% of the vote total (537 of 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. His total of 98.53 percent was the third highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999). Also elected along with Ripken was former San Diego Padres outfielder Tony Gwynn, with 97.6 percent of the votes. They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th electees to spend their entire career with one team.

The 14 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include 12 players, a manager and two executives:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)	Earl Weaver ('96, VCS+)	Roberto Alomar ('11, 90%)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)	Lee MacPhail ('98, VCS+)	Pat Gillick ('11, VCS+)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)	Eddie Murray ('03, 85%)
George Kell ('83, VCS+)	Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)	Cal Ripken Jr. ('07, 98%)

+Veterans' Committee Selection

In addition to Ripken, both Robinsons, Palmer, Murray and Jackson also were elected in their first year of eligibility.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late '50s and early '60s, was named as a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager. Williams, an outfielder-first baseman as a player, managed 21 years in the majors with 6 different teams, winning two World Championships and four league titles.

Whitey Herzog, who played for the Orioles in 1961-62 as an outfielder, was inducted in to the Hall of Fame in 2010. Herzog won a World Championship (1982), three National League pennants and six division championships as a manager. His all-time managerial record was 1,281-1,125. He received 14 of 16 possible votes by the Veterans Committee.

In 2011, two former Orioles were enshrined. Roberto Alomar, who played for the Orioles from 1996-1998, was inducted as a Toronto Blue Jay. Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1996-1998, was inducted by the Veterans Committee.

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Along with the 12 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)	William Candy Cummings (rhp)	Hughie Jennings (ss)	Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)	Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)	Wee Willie Keeler (of)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)	Joe Kelley (of-if)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)	Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Rube Marquard (lhp)	George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971.

Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored two members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing." In 2010, former Orioles broadcaster Jon Miller was enshrined as the Ford C. Frick Award winner.

Native Marylanders in the Hall: Ripken, born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, is one of eight native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame and one of four who once played for the Orioles...The other former Orioles – all of whom played for the International League O's – were Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore)...The four native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles who are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

Among the Oriole items on display in the Hall of Fame's Museum are: the spikes worn by Felix Pie during his cycle August 14, 2009 against Los Angeles, the jersey worn by Brian Roberts when he hit his 56th double of the 2009 season, which set a major league record by a switch-hitter, the glove from Mike Bordick's major league-record consecutive errorless games streak in 2002; the jersey worn by Cal Ripken Jr. in his final major league game, Oct. 6, 2001; a jersey worn by Scott Erickson in Cuba, the first major leaguer to pitch on Cuban soil in 40 years on March 28, 1999; a base used by Roberto Alomar in the 1998 All-Star Game, when he was named MVP; the Lineup card from Ripken's 2,130th consecutive game (Sept. 5, 1995) to tie Lou Gehrig's record; the bat used by Eddie Murray to hit 2 home runs in Game 5 of the 1983 World Series; a Frank Robinson jersey; a glove used by Brooks Robinson in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP; the unique short-billed batting helmet worn by Brooks; and balls from no-hitters pitched by Hoyt Wilhelm (Sept. 2, 1958) and Jim Palmer (Aug. 13, 1969).

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their 6th scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on May 14, 2007. The Orioles are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one game postponed by rain. The results:

1961	Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967	Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007	Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

In 2011, former Orioles shortstop Mike Bordick was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame. Bordick spent six seasons with the Orioles (1997-2002) and has the third-highest fielding percentage (.982) among shortstops with at least 1,000 games played in major league history, trailing only Omar Vizquel (.985) and Jimmy Rollins (.983). As a member of the Orioles in 2002, Bordick had the best defensive season for a shortstop in major league history, setting a record for highest fielding percentage (.998), fewest errors (1), consecutive errorless games (110), fielding chances per game (4.9) and consecutive errorless chances (543). Bordick led AL shortstops with a .989 fielding percentage and 797 total chances in 1999 with the Orioles, a year in which he also led the AL in batting average against left-handed pitching (.406). Bordick's 14-year major league career also included time with the Oakland A's (1990-96), New York Mets (2000) and Toronto Blue Jays (2003). He batted .260 with 1,500 hits in his career, including .260 (674-2592) in 739 games with the Orioles. The Orioles Hall of Fame now has 49 former players, coaches and managers.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2011, the Herb Armstrong Award was presented to head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells. Bancells has been in the organization for the last 35 years, serving the last 28 seasons with the big league club and the last 24 as the head Athletic Trainer. Only the third head Athletic Trainer in the 58 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954, Bancells has the longest tenure of anyone to work as an Athletic Trainer in the organization. Bancells has served two terms as president of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine. In 2008, he was inducted into the Maryland Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame. He has also been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games, in 1993 at Camden Yards and 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park. In November 2002 he served as Athletic Trainer for the MLB All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan, and in the winter of '96 he was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians. Following the 2011 season, Bancells and his assistant, Brian Ebel, were named the 2011 Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year by PBATS.

WILD BILL HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out.

Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award. He is remembered on a plaque displayed with the other honorees at the Sports Legends Museum, adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

Centerfielder Adam Jones was voted winner of the 2011 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award after he set career-highs in home runs (25), extra-base hits (53), RBI (83), doubles (26), slugging percentage (.466) and games played (151). His 16 outfield assists led the team and all major league centerfielders. Jones' 403 total chances were the most by an American League outfielder.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Nine players -- Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3), Boog Powell (2), Brian Roberts (2) and Miguel Tejada (2) have won the award more than once.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl currently ranks 20th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 8th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons in the majors.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Pembroke Pines, FL. He has a son and two daughters from a previous marriage, as well as a stepdaughter.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a non-pitcher with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and three American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, 4th in the AL and 5th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS CAL RIPKEN JR.—8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only eight players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star berth, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), an MVP (1983) and AL Rookie of the Year (1982) honors, two Gold Gloves and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. And he still owns five Major League or American League fielding records for shortstops. Cal was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Cal went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award among many other honors.

Cal and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown, MD and have two children, Rachel and Ryan. He is active in youth baseball projects and is co-owner of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate, in addition to raising funds for the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation to benefit youth programs.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 6th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians ('75-'77), he managed the San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), the Orioles ('88-'89) and the Montreal Expos—Washington Nationals ('02-'06).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 17th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks 8th all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' triple crown 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. Eddie has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

20th ANNIVERSARY SEASON OF THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards captured the nation's attention from day one and in the 20 seasons that followed, has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and all of Maryland, as well as Orioles fans throughout Birdland, should take great pride in the fact that our team makes its home in the ballpark that forever changed baseball.

2012 IMPROVEMENTS AND UPGRADES

As part of a continued commitment to honor the proud history of the franchise, and in conjunction with efforts to improve the design aesthetic and functionality of the ballpark and the bullpen picnic grove in center field, the Orioles have enhanced the fan experience at Oriole Park at Camden Yards for 2012, highlighted by a newly renovated area to honor the greatest Orioles of all time inside the gates of the ballpark.

Larger than life sculptures of the six Orioles retired number and National Baseball Hall of Fame members – Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken, Jr. – will be unveiled during the course of the 2012 season, one each month. The sculptures will be located in an improved bullpen picnic grove, which will receive significant upgrades and additional landscaping as part of a plan to turn the area into a ballpark oasis. As with the Orioles Hall of Fame plaques on Eutaw Street, this area will be renovated to allow fans access during non-gameday hours.

All six sculptures are being created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez. The sculptures will be cast into bronze by Baltimore's New Arts Foundry, which also cast the statues of Babe Ruth and Johnny Unitas that are located outside Oriole Park and M&T Bank Stadium, respectively. The sculptures will range from seven to eight feet in scale and weigh between 600 and 1,500 pounds each.

Along with the installation of the sculptures, the Orioles have also planned additional upgrades to the main concourse, Eutaw Street, flag court and upper deck at Camden Yards for the 2012 season.

MAIN CONCOURSE: In 2011, the Orioles and their concessionaire, Delaware North Sportservice, invested in an overhaul of the main concourse concessions. For 2012, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority are further improving the main concourse with new flooring and wall coverings. Following a trend in ballparks for a more finished look, the new flooring, which debuted last year in the lower concourse behind home plate, improves not only aesthetics but makes for easier cleaning and a less slippery surface when wet. Select Orioles design elements will be added to lower concourse walls and murals will be added to stairwells.

EUTAW STREET AND PICNIC AREA: The outfield areas of Eutaw Street and the bullpen picnic grove in center field are undergoing a major overhaul featuring the following changes in addition to the six new sculptures:

A new outfield overlook on top of the batter's eye wall in center field, featuring casual seating, a bar and deck seating. Any fan with a game ticket will be able to enjoy this unique vantage point to watch all or a portion of the game. This area was previously inaccessible to fans.

New entry concessions at the north end of Eutaw Street.

As a part of MSA's restoration of the B&O Warehouse brick work, a replica of the original canopy will be added to the Warehouse to shelter portable concessions and additional seating, as well as fans on Eutaw Street searching for shade or to escape inclement weather.

FLAG COURT: The out-of-town scoreboard on the right field wall will be modified to reduce the height of the wall and thus improve views of the game from the Flag Court and Eutaw Street.

UPPER DECK CONCESSIONS: All upper deck concessions will be upgraded with new food service equipment, allowing for an expanded menu and more freshly prepared options as well as a new look, similar to what was completed on the lower level prior to the 2011 season.

20 YEARS (and more) OF HISTORY

There have been countless exciting moments in the last 20-plus years of Major League baseball in Baltimore. Here are some of the most memorable.

May 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles play before 50,402 fans on a Monday night billed as Fantastic Fans Night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announces that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority have agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

February 6, 1990 – With Pete Harnisch pitching and bullpen coach Elrod Hendricks catching, first baseman Randy Milligan hits the first ball ever on the grounds of the new Camden Yards ballpark as construction begins after six months of demolition work at the site.

October 3, 1991 – On the eve of the Final Weekend at Memorial Stadium, and after more than two years of debate, the Orioles' new ballpark is officially named. It will be called Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

April 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushers in a new era of ballparks, and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0 on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helps revitalize the neighborhood and immediately earns wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

May 23, 1992 – After selling out eight of their first 23 games in the new ballpark, the Orioles begin a string of 59 straight sellouts to finish the season.

September 28, 1992 – The Orioles conclude their home schedule by beating Boston and shattering the club's season attendance record. The Orioles draw 3,567,819 fans, breaking the club record set the year before at Memorial Stadium by more than one million.

April 22, 1993 – The Orioles then-major league record of 65 straight home sellouts comes to an end with a daytime make-up game vs. the Chicago White Sox that draws 22,564.

July 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosts the city's second All-Star Game and first since 1958. The event follows a week-long "All-Star FanFest", the first of its kind.

July 15, 1993 – Cal Ripken Jr. hits his 278th career home run as a shortstop against the Twins' Scott Erickson at Camden Yards, breaking the record held by Cubs Hall of Famer Ernie Banks. The feat goes unrecognized until after the season, and the Orioles install an orange seat in the left field stands prior to the 1994 season to mark the spot of the home run.

July 9, 1994 – Jeffrey Hammonds hits the first walk-off home run in Oriole Park history as the Orioles, who trailed the Oakland A's 7-2 in the 5th inning, come back to win 8-7.

September 5, 1995 – On the night Cal Ripken Jr. ties Lou Gehrig for the most consecutive games played (2,130), the Orioles get back-to-back-to-back 2nd inning home runs from Jeff Manto, Mark Smith and Brady Anderson, and Chris Hoiles adds another in the same inning, both marks tying club records.

September 6, 1995 – The Iron Man tops the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken Jr. surpasses a record once thought unreachable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helps beat the Angels, 4-2. President Clinton and Vice President Gore both attend the game, the first time a sitting president and vice-president attend a professional sports event together.

September 26-28, 1995 – After tossing two straight shutouts in Toronto, the Orioles return home for their final three games of the season and blank the Detroit Tigers 6-0, 12-0, 4-0 to end the season with 45 consecutive scoreless innings, matching the club and league records for consecutive shutouts.

1995 – The Orioles draw 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They will go on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

October 8, 1995 – As part of a visit to Baltimore, Pope John Paul II celebrates mass in front of more than 50,000 people at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the fifth of seven major league parks ever to host a papal mass.

April 26, 1996 – In a nationally televised game on Fox, Orioles second baseman Roberto Alomar becomes the first player to hit three home runs in a game at Camden Yards during a 14-5 thumping of Boston.

May 17, 1996 – Trailing Seattle by three runs with bases loaded and two outs in the bottom of the 9th inning, Chris Hoiles hits a grand slam, the 12th walk-off grand slam with two outs in major league history, to give the Orioles a 14-13 win.

June 17, 1996 – Rain halts the Orioles game vs. Texas with the score tied 1-1 in the 6th inning, causing the game to be replayed the next night. It marks the 10th tie game in club history and the first since 1982.

July 27, 1996 – In a pre-game ceremony, the Orioles celebrate Earl Weaver's induction into the Hall of Fame, unveiling a dugout plaque in his honor with the number "4".

September 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hits his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards. An orange seat is installed to mark the spot of the home run.

October 1, 1996 – In the first post-season game ever at Oriole Park, the Orioles blast Cleveland, 10-4, in Game One of the AL Division Series. They go on to defeat the Indians in the ALDS before losing to New York in the AL Championship Series.

April 3, 1997 – After a season-opening win two days earlier, the Orioles complete a 2-game sweep of Kansas City to move into sole possession of first place in the AL East. They will never lose the lead, going wire-to-wire to win the division, becoming just the sixth team in MLB history to accomplish that feat.

August 12, 1997 – A day after the sudden passing of Rex Barney, the Orioles beat the Oakland A's, 8-0, in a game played without a public address announcer. His press box seat will remain empty the remainder of the year, with fill-in PA announcers working from the video control room. A plaque in Barney's memory is installed behind his old seat with his name, his old Brooklyn Dodgers uniform number (26) and his famous "Thank youuu."

October 5, 1997 – With subs Jeff Reboulet and Jerome Walton starting in place of All-Stars Roberto Alomar and Rafael Palmeiro, the Orioles beat Seattle's Randy Johnson, 3-1, to clinch the AL Division Series in front of 48,776 fans.

July 12, 1998 – Eric Davis goes 2-for-5 with a grand slam and 5 RBIs in an 11-7 win over Boston at Camden Yards, the start of a club-record 30-game hitting streak. The streak ends on August 16 at Cleveland.

September 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken Jr. ends his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. With Ryan Minor starting in his place at third base, Ripken acknowledges the crowd's standing ovation from the dugout after the first pitch of the game.

May 3, 1999 – After traveling to Havana for a historic exhibition game during spring training, the Orioles host an exhibition game against Cuba at Camden Yards, marking the first time that Cuba ever has played a major league team on U.S. soil.

August 17, 1999 – Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco retires the only batter he faces vs. Minnesota in his 1,072nd career appearance, breaking the major league record held by Dennis Eckersley. The Orioles erect a plaque marking the feat in the Orioles bullpen.

September 28, 2000 – Eleven different Orioles either get a hit or score a run, and nine different players have RBIs, as the Orioles beat Toronto, 23-1 at Camden Yards to set a club record for most runs scored in a game.

2001 – With the playing surface being replaced, Oriole Park's original field configuration is redrawn to add distance to the outfield walls and bring fans closer to the field in the seating bowl. Home plate is moved 7 feet closer to the backstop and angled slightly to the third base side. The left field foul pole is reset, and the outfield measurements go from 333 to 337 feet in left, 400 to 406 in center, and 318 to 320 in right.

April 4, 2001 – Boston's Hideo Nomo tosses the first no-hitter in Camden Yards history, blanking the Orioles, 3-0.

August 11-12, 2001 – With the opener of a three-game series rained out, the Orioles draw 96,785 for the final two games of a series against Boston, the largest two-game series in Oriole Park history.

October 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken plays his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. Among the honors: the Orioles unveil a dugout plaque in memory of his father, Cal Ripken Sr., longtime scout, coach, manager and mentor to Oriole players and staff for 36 seasons.

2002 – The field dimensions return to their original measurements. Home plate is moved back, and the outfield from left field line-left center-center-right center-right field line goes back to 333', 364', 400', 373' and 318'.

April 11, 2002 – Trailing Tampa Bay, 6-3, the Orioles erupt for club single-inning records with 12 runs and 11 hits in the 6th inning and go on to beat the Devil Rays, 15-6.

May 26, 2003 – The Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority dedicate a Memorial Wall outside the south end of the Eutaw Street walkway. The lighted 11-foot tall, black granite wall, honoring veterans, contains the original stainless steel lettering from Memorial Stadium reading, "Time Will Not Dim The Glory Of Their Deeds." An urn from Memorial Stadium containing soil from all foreign U.S. military cemeteries and a plaque explaining the wall's significance and its connection to the Orioles' former home are included in the memorial.

2004 – The concrete padded wall backstop at Oriole Park is replaced by brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic, and two rows of seats are added at field level beyond the first and third base dugouts.

April 4, 2004 – The Orioles open their 50th anniversary season by beating the Red Sox, 7-2, in a nationally televised Sunday night game. It is the first time the Orioles play a home opener at night.

July 10, 2005 – The largest crowd in Camden Yards history – 49,828 fans – watches the Orioles beat Boston, 4-1, to take three of four games from the Red Sox. The series also draws an Oriole Park record for a four-date series, 195,722.

June 29, 2007 – Aubrey Huff singles in the 7th inning against the Angels to become the 3rd Oriole to hit for the cycle but the first ever to do it in his home ballpark.

August 10-12, 2007 – The Orioles' three-game series with Boston draws 146,786 fans, the largest three-date total in Oriole Park history. The Orioles take two of the three games when Kevin Millar hits a three-run, 10th inning homer to beat his former team in the series finale.

August 19, 2008 – The Orioles welcome their 50 millionth fan to Oriole Park, making it the quickest ballpark ever to reach that milestone. The Orioles and the Maryland Lottery present 24-year-old Kevin Gracie, of Ellicott City, MD with $50,000 and season tickets for five years before the game against Boston.

August 23, 2008 – Velma Green, of Harpers Ferry, WV, becomes the 100 millionth fan to see an Orioles home game in the 55-year history of the club when she passes through the turnstiles before the Orioles game vs. New York at Camden Yards. She is awarded $100,000 and season tickets for five years by the Orioles and the Maryland Lottery.

June 30, 2009 – In their biggest comeback win ever, the Orioles trail Boston 10-1 before erupting for five runs in the 7th inning and five runs in the 8th to stun the Red Sox 11-10.

2010 – The club level and suites at Oriole Park undergo a second major renovation, with new furnishings and designs and updated displays in the lounges and hallways. A showcase is added at the club level lobby, displaying the Orioles' World Series and ALCS trophies, along with Gold Gloves, MVP and Cy Young awards.

June 22, 2010 – A series of orange circles with the numbers of the Orioles' six retired uniform numbers, honoring Frank Robinson (20), Brooks Robinson (5), Earl Weaver (4), Jim Palmer (22), Eddie Murray (33) and Cal Ripken Jr. (8) – as well as a blue 42 for Jackie Robinson – are unveiled on the facing of the left field upper deck.

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Poca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark originally seated 48,041 (and now seats 45,971), and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmut, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an inlaid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, all new irrigation heads were installed and in 2007, the warning track around the field was replaced. In 2008, the sod was replaced with a sand-based blend of Kentucky bluegrass that is genetically darker in color and more durable than the version previously used at Oriole Park, giving the field a more vibrant green color.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to 7 feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter distance to the right field corner than down the left field line is compensated by a 21' high wall, which extends 100' from the right field line toward center field. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Open daily, Eutaw Street is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Small circular plaques are found in the concrete along Eutaw Street, marking the locations where home runs have landed since the ballpark opened. Through the 2011 season, 39 different players have hit 57 homeruns which have landed on Eutaw Street (24 by the Orioles and 33 by the visiting team). Luke Scott's 6 homeruns are the most by any player in Oriole Park history.

In addition, numbers representing the players whose uniforms have been retired by the Orioles are located outside the north Eutaw Street gates.

Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street. The Orioles Official Team Store, open daily, is located on the ground floor of the warehouse.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night. A dedication ceremony was held on Memorial Day, May 26, 2003.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland's minor league baseball teams, college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

Major improvements and upgrades have been made to the entire Oriole Park entertainment system within the past several years. Prior to the 2008 season, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority contracted with Mitsubishi to purchase a new video system for Oriole Park at Camden Yards, replacing the Sony JumboTRON video board and Daktronics matrix and out-of-town boards used since the park opened in 1992. This state of the art equipment includes a Mitsubishi DiamondVision LED video board and LED scoreboard in center field, an LED out of town scoreboard display in right field, and LED "ribbon" boards along the club level and upper deck fascia.

The new DiamondVision LED video board sits atop the LED scoreboard, reversing the placement of the previous system. The LED out of town scoreboard in right field features statistical information in addition to game scores. The narrow auxiliary matrix boards along the club level and upper deck were replaced with LED ribbon boards, providing better definition, brighter images and wider viewing angles. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet scoring system provides extensive statistical information on each player to help keep fans informed.

In order to preserve the traditional feel of Oriole Park while providing fans with the most modern technology, the Orioles hired an expert design team to work with the Maryland Stadium Authority to deliver major technological upgrades while preserving the ballpark's historic aesthetic.

Phase two of the ballpark improvements were completed prior to the 2009 season and included major control room upgrades, new HD televisions throughout the ballpark and improvements in the coverage and quality of the ballpark sound system. The ballpark entertainment control room replacement allows the entertainment system to transmit a high-definition (HD) signal to the main and auxiliary video boards and further enhance the fan experience at Oriole Park.

The 2009 sound system renovations included 530 new speakers in all, replacing those that had been in place since Oriole Park opened. To improve coverage and consistency of sound throughout the seating area, a number of additional loudspeaker positions were created. New speakers are located in the Upper and Lower Deck seating bowl, Club Level, Main Concourse, centerfield bleacher area and scoreboard. The new system employs digital signal processing (DSP) that is significantly more advanced than what was previously used and allows a much greater level of control. The result is a substantially more uniform listening experience throughout the seating area.

FOUL POLES

When the Orioles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

SEATING

After the 2010 season, the Maryland Stadium Authority completed the final phase of the replacement of the seats in the Oriole Park seating bowl as part of their deferred maintenance program. After the 2009 season, all seats in the lower level from foul pole to foul pole were replaced, along with necessary repairs to the concrete in this area. The work concluded in the winter of 2010-2011, as MSA repaired concrete and replaced seats in the lower level outfield, the club level and the upper deck.

At the request of the Orioles, the Club Level and upper deck at Camden Yards have been furnished with wider seats that are more comfortable for fans. Sightlines for fans on both of those levels were improved with the installation of new, less intrusive railings to enhance the view of those sitting in the first few rows, as well as fans sitting in and around upper deck equal access and companion seats.

Other ballpark improvements made prior to the 2011 season included the installation of drink rails in portions of the club level seating bowl down the left field line, as well as the addition of bistro tables facing the field on the left field club level and the creation of the Miller Lite Flite Deck in the corner of the right field club level. All of the new locations provide a unique, more social experience for fans and are ideal for individuals as well as small and large groups.

Every aisle seat in the park has an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the box seats there are some 6,400 terrace box and lower reserved seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 47'.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 61 luxury suites, with the ability to accommodate a variety of groups, from smaller gatherings with 14-18 guests to larger parties with 30-40 guests. While some of the suites are leased on a full or partial season basis, a number of them are available for individual game rentals. Three larger party suites, named to honor Orioles legends, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Jim Palmer, can accommodate groups of up to 75 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,850 Eutaw Street Reserve seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

With the installation of wider seats in the Club Level and upper deck, total seating capacity in the ballpark was decreased from 48,290 to 45,971 beginning in 2011. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, many exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

- Drink rails were installed in portions of the club level seating bowl down the left field line, as well as bistro tables facing the field on the left field club level and the Miller Lite Flite Deck in the corner of the right field club level.
- Concrete and seats throughout the ballpark were replaced following the 2009 and 2010 seasons as part of the Maryland Stadium Authority's deferred maintenance program. Cushions were added to the lower level seats between the bases.
- Prior to 2010, all the rows in the entire ballpark were switched from letters to numbers, to more clearly designate the number of rows from the field or the front of the club and upper levels.
- The Home Plate Plaza Lobby, Home Plate Lounge and Upper and Lower Press Levels were renovated during the 2009 off-season.

- Within the past three years, the entire ballpark entertainment system, including the audio, video and scoreboards, were upgraded or replaced.
- Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
- Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, ten seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
- Also prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5' rotational signs were also added to the wall.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Home Plate Plaza Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
- Also in 2000, the first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- Prior to the 2000 season, the fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- Included in the improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
- In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
- Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
- Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
- The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The Orioles World Series trophies, Gold Glove, MVP and Cy Young Awards are on view at the entrance to the Club Level. Photos and records of each Orioles team beginning in 1954, as well as other artifacts of the club's history, adorn the corridors. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos of members of the Orioles Hall of Fame have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
- Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments...

- Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
- Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), Eddie Murray (33) and Jackie Robinson (42).
- Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.
- Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street; a full display with highlights of each inductee's career is located in the Sports Legends Museum at Camden Yards, next to the ballpark.
- Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.
- Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).
- Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.
- Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.
- In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the •Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.

•In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2011, over 30,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Since 1992 more than 800,000 fans have taken a tour of Oriole Park. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between March and November. For tickets and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234 or 888-848-BIRD (2473).

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

ATTENDANCE

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed their 50 millionth fan at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Camden Yards is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball. In 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history entered the gates at Camden Yards. In 56 seasons and 4,131 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 102,243,555 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 55,886,447 fans in 1,575 dates in 20 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance they drew from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 35,483 fans per game in 1,575 dates at Camden Yards.

2011: The Orioles drew 1,755,461 fans to Camden Yards in 80 home dates, an average of 21,943 fans per game. The Orioles had two sellouts in 2011, drawing 46,593 for the home opener against Detroit on April 4 and 45,382 for an interleague game against Cincinnati on June 24. The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 777 of 1,575 dates at Oriole Park.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007 series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 146,784 set August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland.

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did it for five consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 18 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES

3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)

2 million—43 home dates ('94)

1 million—22 home dates ('94)

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 9,129 on April 12, 2010 against the Tampa Bay Rays. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

50 MILLIONTH/100 MILLIONTH

The Orioles reached two major attendance milestones during the 2008 season. On August 19, the team welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, as the designated 50 millionth person to attend a game at Camden Yards. Oriole Park became the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball.

Four days later, on August 23, the 100 millionth person in franchise history was welcomed at Oriole Park. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, West Virginia, was designated as the milestone fan.

Since it ushered in a new era of ballpark design in 1992, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has been the standard-bearer for sports facilities in the United States, welcoming individuals from all 50 states and over 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived significant economic impact totaling in the billions of dollars from the nearly 56 million fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 20 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in festivals, meetings, tours and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

The general line for the Public Relations Department is 410-547-6150. During home games, the PR department can be reached in the press box at 410-547-6257. The PR department fax number is 410-547-6272. The PR Twitter account is @OriolesPR.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for full season or single-game credentials must go through the MLB Credentialing System. Media members who do not have an account on the MLB system should contact Amanda Sarver in the Public Relations Department at asarver@orioles.com to establish an account. Credential requests for individual games must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of the requested game. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will result in confiscation of the credential and ejection from Oriole Park. Those approved for credentials may pick them up at Home Plate Plaza, located between Gates D & E, beginning four hours before game time.

BALLPARK & PRESS LEVEL ACCESS

Media must access the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D & E. Home Plate Plaza opens four hours before game time. Media should be prepared to show identification to obtain their credentials. The press box is located on Level Two (Lower Press) and is to be used by print and non-rightsholder electronic outlets. Home and visiting radio and television broadcast from Level Three (Upper Press). Wireless Internet access is available on both levels. Login information to access the Internet from the press level is available in the lower press box.

PARKING

Limited parking for media is available in Lots A and B/C off of Lee Street. TV trucks may park in the ENG Lot next to Lot A. A hang tag or daily pass is required for access to each of these lots. Media without a parking pass must contact the Public Relations Department for a daily pass. Due to limited availability not all requests can be fulfilled.

PRESS DINING ROOM

Media with season, MLB, BBWAA or single-game credentials are invited to eat in the Press Dining Room on the Upper Press Level. Food service will begin two hours before the start of that day's game and continue until one hour after the game begins, at a cost of $10.00 per meal. Light refreshments and beverages are available in the Dining Room through the seventh inning. Due to space limitations, only credentialed media and club employees with game-time duties may eat in the Dining Room. We are unable to accommodate friends and family members.

FIELD ACCESS

Credentialed media may access the field at Camden Yards by taking the Home Plate Plaza elevators to the Basement Level and walking through the "Umpires' Tunnel" between the home and visiting clubhouses. The field area is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time. Media are asked to remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Only media with MLB, BBWAA or team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to "tight" interview shots. The clubhouses will open for media access 3 ½ hours before game time and close when the team takes the field for batting practice. Both clubhouses will open within 10 minutes after the final out of each game. The trainer's area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen and shower areas are off-limits to media at all times. Media are not permitted to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

INTERVIEW ROOM

Orioles Manager Buck Showalter will be available to media in a group session before and after every home game. Pre-game interviews will take place in the Orioles dugout or the Auxiliary Clubhouse off the Umpires' Tunnel. Showalter's post-game media availability will be held in the Auxiliary Clubhouse.

O'S PUBLIC RELATIONS ON TWITTER

Media members may receive updates from the Orioles public relations department via Twitter. Visit @OriolesPR to subscribe.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Camera wells are located at each end of the home and visitors dugouts. Camera positions will be designated by the Orioles' Public Relations department or Team Photographer. No still photographers are allowed in either clubhouse without the consent of the Public Relations department of each team.

NO AUTOGRAPHS

Autograph seeking is strictly prohibited for credentialed media members. Any member of the media who requests an autograph will have his/her credential and press access revoked.

ORIOLES TELEVISION & RADIO

TELEVISION

Announcers: Mike Bordick, Rick Dempsey, Jim Hunter, Jim Palmer and Gary Thorne.

MASN, the television home of the Baltimore Orioles, is an independent regional sports network that televises every available Orioles game. The network is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and gives fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Before every game, MASN televises the Orioles exclusive pregame show, O's Xtra, with insights and analysis about the upcoming matchup.

After each game, MASN televises the O's Xtra postgame show, with highlights, player interviews and the Manager's press conference.

Beginning with the 2008 season, the award-winning network began broadcasting select Orioles games in high definition. Since 2010, MASN has televised every Orioles game in high-definition on its two HD channels, MASN HD and MASN2 HD. All of MASN's cable, satellite and fiber optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season and most distributors also carry MASN HD and MASN2 HD. (Visit www.masnsports.com for local listings).

In addition, 20 weekend MASN-produced Orioles games are simulcast on MASN's over-the-air partner, WJZ-TV, Channel 13 in Baltimore.

MASN carries 250 NCAA Division I football, basketball and lacrosse games, featuring local colleges and top-ranked programs, as well as other exciting regional sports programming.

MASN's exclusive television territory covers all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.masnsports.com.

MIKE BORDICK

Longtime Oriole and Orioles Hall of Fame member Mike Bordick joins the MASN broadcast team this season, pairing with Jim Hunter or Gary Thorne as a analyst for half the O's games in 2012.

A 2011 inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, Bordick played for the Orioles for six seasons from 1997-2002. One of the best defensive players in club history, Bordick has the third-highest fielding percentage (.982) among shortstops with at least 1,000 games played in major league history, trailing only Omar Vizquel (.985) and Jimmy Rollins (.984).

In his 2002 season with the Orioles, Bordick had the best defensive season for a shortstop in major league history, setting a record for highest fielding percentage (.998), fewest errors (1), consecutive errorless games (110), fielding chances per game (4.9) and consecutive errorless chances (543). Bordick led AL shortstops with a .989 fielding percentage and 797 total chances in 1999 with the Orioles, a year in which he also led the AL in batting average against left-handed pitching (.406). Bordick's 14-year major league career also included time with the Oakland A's (1990-96), New York Mets (2000) and Toronto Blue Jays (2003). He batted .260 with 1,500 hits in his career, including .260 (674-2592) in 739 games with the Orioles.

Originally signed by the A's as a non-drafted free agent after playing in the Cape Cod League in 1986, Bordick was on Oakland's active roster for the 1990 World Series and appeared in three games for the A's. He also played in the 2000 World Series with the New York Mets after being traded from the Orioles that July and was named to the American League All-Star team that year as well.

Bordick played three years at the University of Maine, where he led the Bears to College World Series berths in 1984 and 1986. At the end of his playing career he completed his bachelors degree in kinesiology and physical education from Maine.

He spent the past two seasons as Coordinator of Offensive Fundamentals for the Orioles' minor league system. Bordick will continue to work as a Special Assignment Instructor in the Orioles' minor league system when he is not in the broadcast booth.

Bordick and his wife, Monica, reside in Ruxton, Maryland with their six children.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis enters his 42nd year as a local sportscaster and begins his second year as the host of MASN's Mid Atlantic Sports Report. He will also work on television as a co-host of "O's Xtra," MASN's pre- and post-game shows. Davis previously spent 17 seasons as a host on Orioles telecasts on Home Team Sports (HTS) from 1984-2000.

A five-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Davis began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL Radio, had two stints at WCBM-AM and spent 17 years as a sportscaster for the "Rouse & Company Show" on WQSR-FM.

Tom's national sports broadcasting experience includes work with NBC-TV and NBC Radio, where he covered the NFL, 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1988 Summer Olympics. He also did play-by-play for a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

Davis served as play-by-play announcer for the first game played at M&T Bank Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Baltimore Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run in 1999.

In addition to his work on Orioles broadcasts, Davis hosts a sports talk show, "Wall to Wall Baseball," each Saturday afternoon on MASN. He also produces and hosts "Touchdown Baltimore" and "Take Me Out To The Ballgame," shows that profile the Baltimore Ravens and Orioles and air on MASN weekly during the teams' respective seasons.

A graduate of Calvert Hall College High School, Davis received a BS degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He lives in Baltimore County with his wife Bonnie and is the father of three adult children, Malinda, Tad and Mandi. He has two grandchildren, Hunter and Georgia.

RICK DEMPSEY

Former Orioles catcher and 1983 World Series MVP Rick Dempsey is in his sixth year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team after five years on the club's coaching staff. He teams with Jim Hunter or Tom Davis to host the "O's Xtra" pre- and post-game shows on MASN.

This season marks Dempsey's 45th year working in professional baseball. He played for 24 major league seasons with six teams, including 11 1/2 with the Orioles. Dempsey is tied for 8th all-time in seasons played and is one of only three catchers, along with Tim Lincecum and Carlton Fisk, to play in four decades. He played on three World Series teams and won two championships, including 1983 when he was named the World Series MVP in the Orioles' 4-games-to-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Rick batted .233 with 96 home runs and 471 RBI in his career, which began with the Minnesota Twins in 1969. He was traded to the New York Yankees in 1973 and, in 1976, to the Orioles as part of a 10-player swap that also brought the O's Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor...He became the Orioles' regular catcher in 1977 and for 10 years was the Orioles' primary backstop, catching a club-record 1,222 games. After leaving the Orioles, Dempsey played for Cleveland (1987), Los Angeles (1988-90) and Milwaukee (1991) before returning to the Orioles for his final season in '92. He had a .988 career fielding percentage.

Dempsey began his post-playing career as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' major league coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. From 2002-2006, he served as a first base coach, third base coach and bullpen coach on the Orioles coaching staff.

Rick and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John, who was a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system, and Christian. Rick's younger brother Pat was a minor league catcher for several teams, including the Orioles. His nephew, Gregg Zaun, was a catcher with the Orioles in 1995-96 and 2009. The son of an actor, Rick entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1997.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 16th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. Jim enters his 9th season in the TV Booth on MASN. He is the host of "O's Xtra," MASN's Orioles pre-game and post game shows and will also call play by play of O's games on MASN. He also has called play by play of MASN's coverage of college football and college basketball. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 34 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 53, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's MLB "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles' first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim makes several appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub as well as helping various charities. He has been an active part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which annually raises money for cancer research for children.

When Jim began his career at the CBS Radio Network in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host SportsBreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame for football and baseball in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Hunter resides in Fallston, MD with his wife Bonnie. They have three children. Jimmy (27) and Jeff (25) are graduates of Fallston HS and York College, PA. They are musicians in the band Second Self. Allie (21) is a graduate of Fallston High School where she was a member of back to back state championship field hockey teams. She is a junior at George Mason University. They also have two faithful dogs, Bobby and Sadie.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 20th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 389.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, four other broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), Bob Murphy ('60-'61) and Jon Miller ('83-'96).

GARY THORNE

Gary Thorne is one of the most recognizable voices in sports broadcasting, having covered Major League Baseball, the National Hockey League, the Olympics, NCAA basketball, football and hockey during his illustrious 47-year broadcasting career. This year marks his 27th season of play by play coverage of MLB and his sixth on Orioles' MASN broadcasts.

Thorne has broadcast nine World Series, 14 All-Star Games for MLB International TV and 12 NHL seasons, including Stanley Cup playoffs and finals for ABC/ESPN. He broadcast New York Mets games on radio and TV for 13 seasons, including the 1986 World Series. This season is his 22nd year of MLB coverage on ESPN.

In addition to his on-air work, Thorne is president of the Baseball Assistance Team (BAT), which provides assistance to members of baseball's family who are in need. He also hosts both the BAT and Major League Baseball Players Association annual dinners.

Thorne has covered three Olympics with CBS and NBC and has received four Emmys, one for his Orioles coverage on MASN in 2009, two for his work with Mets TV and one for his work broadcasting New Jersey Devils hockey. In 2012, he will host Hall of Fame induction day ceremonies at Cooperstown for the fourth time.

Thorne's first appearance on ESPN was in July 1988 for the inaugural Triple-A All-Star Game. He served as the original host and moderator in 1988 for "The Sports Reporters," the network's Sunday morning roundtable program.

In 1989, Thorne served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and teamed with Hall of Fame second baseman Joe Morgan on ABC's Thursday night MLB telecasts. He also broadcast games for the Baseball Network.

Thorne has also done play-by-play on SportsChannel America's National Hockey League telecasts (1988-92) and New Jersey Devils telecasts on SportsChannel New York (1987-92). Prior to that, he was the play-by-play commentator and director of broadcasting for the Maine Guides (1984), a Triple-A ball club which he co-owned from 1984-88. He also covered University of Maine hockey games for WBGW-AM and WABI-TV and radio from 1977-86.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, member of the Army JAG Corps and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977.

RADIO

Announcers: Joe Angel and Fred Manfra

The Orioles continue their partnership with 1090 AM WBAL Radio in 2012. This season marks the 43rd year since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 58 years ago that WBAL Radio has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first broadcast O's games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

WBAL Radio will broadcast the entire 162-game regular season schedule, as well as 16 spring training games. The station will also air 30-minute pre- and post-game shows; a daily Manager's Report; "On Deck," a program that leads into the pre-game show; and an off-season Hot Stove Show.

This is the 12th year of the Orioles' partnership with WTEM (980 AM) to broadcast all games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. In 2010 the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, PA. In all, there are over 40 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering six states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel will team with Fred Manfra for his 9th straight season as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio.

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe has broadcast Major League Baseball for 34 years, including 12 seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-11. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 64, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago seven years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured O.J. Simpson as running back.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in Major League Baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

In his nearly 35 years of radio work with Major League Baseball, Joe has broadcast two World Series, 30 postseason games and six no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN Column," "Wave it bye bye" and "Hasta la vista pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in El Dorado Hills, CA, and have three grown children: Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's... future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 20th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL Radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 through 2006.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984); Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988); Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992); and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work. Fred is on the advisory board of the Salvation Army of Baltimore and the board of the Albert Close Foundation in Harford County, and Marlene is on the board of the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland and is also involved with Stella Maris hospice center. They have two adult daughters—Michelle, who lives in Massachusetts and works at Children's Hospital Boston; and Stephanie, who resides in Miami, FL and works with the Alliance for a Healthier Generation.
